

Skiing helps students overcome handicaps

Mark Roed, of Farmington Hills, is using his love of skiing to help handicapped students overcome their disabilities.

Roed, a senior at Michigan State University, is a volunteer in a therapeutic recreation program for handicapped students from the Michigan School for the Blind.

Each Wednesday, from December through March, MSU students and other volunteers assist 46 handicapped children and young adults, ages 7-26, in learning downhill and cross country skiing.

"Winter sports are important to the handicapped students," says Debra Stuart, therapeutic recreation director at MSB.

"Participation in sports can help them learn to enjoy the winter months, and, if their families ski, can provide them with an activity the whole family can enjoy."

Roed, enrolled in James Madison

College at MSU, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roed, 28015 Ridgebrook. He is a 1976 graduate of North Farmington High School.

The student relationship, such as Roed is involved in, has a reciprocal effect in that each is learning from the other, says Stuart.

"The volunteers are able to see improvements in the students' agility, confidence, self image and social awareness," she says.

"It is a chance for the volunteer to make a difference for someone else."

The techniques used in teaching the students to ski are based on those used in two blind skiing programs, BOLD (Blind Outdoor Leisure Development), a downhill program and Ski for Light, a cross country program.

"Although an MSB therapeutic recreation representative is present at each ski outing, it is the volunteers who really make the program available to the students," says Stuart.

Blind students aren't the only ones taking part in the MSB ski program. Students with other handicaps also participate.

The technique used in downhill skiing is a certified technique developed by French ski champion Jean Eymere, the founder of BOLD, who was blinded by sugar diabetes.

The student holds on to the middle of a balance pole while two volunteers, one at either end of the pole, guide him down the slope.

Eventually the student develops the agility to go down the hill by himself.

For cross country skiing, each student is paired with a volunteer who instructs him in the basics of cross country skiing and directs him through the course.

Lifeguards needed for pool and beaches

Lifeguards seeking ocean-like waves or beach breezes can have their pick this summer at Oakland County parks.

Lifeguards and swimming instructors are needed for Michigan's only wave action pool and at three county beaches.

The Waterford Oaks wave action pool, one of a few in the country, is 180 feet long, ranges from zero to eight feet in depth and creates waves as high as three feet alternating with calm periods.

The pool opens May 23 and closes for the season Labor Day. Open swimming hours are 11 a.m. to dusk daily. Swimming lessons are available for all ages.

The county parks system also has three pools with swimming beaches including Groveland Oaks in Holly, Independence Oaks near Clarkston and Addison Oaks north of Rochester.

To schedule an appointment for the water test, call Marilyn Baker at 858-0921.

Dates for the exam are Sunday, April 13, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., and Sunday, April 27, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Applications must pass a water test

given by the Oakland County Parks

Center.

The Waterford Oaks wave action pool is located at 858-0921.
