Link Welding Locating Big Plant In Township

Link Welder Corp. will build a new 600,000-sq-ft plant in Farmington Township, Mich., designed by architect Walter Watson of Livonia.

The project was announced by Link's President Walter Watson of 17538 Parklane, Livonia.

The plant will be located in Farmington Township, Mich., near the intersection of the new Freeway Industrial Park at 10 Mile and Grand River.

Construction will begin this year and be completed by early 1971.

Walter Watson will spend the winter months in Europe. He is expected to return to the United States in the next few weeks.

Spans for a rest in the sun and the home more tired than you were when you went there. Stay was at the Nixie Palace on the island, one of Spain's luxury hotels. They visited Madrid and surrounding areas including the famous Caves of Drach which surpass our Mammoth Caves. The Caves of Drach are illuminated like the Mammoth Caves but there is a lake approximately 60 feet long by 20 feet wide within the caves.

On the island of Majorca, the 700-year-old James III Cathedral and the ruins of a castle surrounded by a moat were most intriguing.

18 Arrested In Drug Raid

FARMINGTON Township detectives and officers of the narcotics division of the Michigan State Police arrested 18 persons in a raid on a house in Farmington Township.

Charged with sale of heroin, the detective said, and sent to the Washtenaw County Juvenile Home.

Would you believe the Barney Morris family of Wayburn had three TV sets going during the Super Bowl?

Channel 7 news anchorman, Barney and wife Lydia, weren't too keen on watching the exciting game alone so they invited a flock of guests to share the enthusiasm with them.

THE PERSONS arrested at the house at 33737 12 Mile Rd. were charged with possession of heroin, two packages of marijuana and other items, hypodermic needles, syringes and other paraphernalia were confiscated in the raid, according to Lt. Russell J. Conroy, head of the township detective bureau.

FIFTEEN OTHER persons pleaded guilty early Saturday morning in a charge of loitering on or about a place where an illegal occupation or business is being conducted. Conroy said.

Police released the following list of persons who pleaded guilty to the loitering charge: Rudy D.
