

At Home In Old Homestead

By IRENE BARTH

I hope the column has been missed while our family vacationed in the north at Blue Horizons Resort on Big Star Lake, near Baldwin. The usual fishing, swimming, water skiing and sunning occupied most of our time. A canoe trip on the Pere Marquette River was fun, though some of us experienced some anxious moments. smooth sailing. A delicious dinner at Sid's was a highlight of the evening. A very enjoyable evening aboard Ed and Rosemary Richardson's cruiser, "The GRP", was spent recently when they entertained the district side of the Friday Night Poker Club. Those who were "ripped" aboard in addition to host and hostess were Phil Borst, Shirley Simmons, Joan Prismau, Sia Campbell, Isabel North and myself. Truly an evening to remember.

Rita Gibes, daughter of Stan and Terese, attended the 15th annual convention of the National Junior Classical League at M.S.U. last week. Nearly 1900 Latin students from 39 states, including Alaska, participated in re-creating the Roman Forum Days. Many planned activities from chariot races to one busy. The group had the privilege of hearing Mrs. George Romney speak at one of the general assembly meetings.

TOPS Member Sheds Total Of 42 Pounds

Isabella Carlson has walked off with all honors in the Farmington TOPS Scale Watchers with her weight loss of 42 pounds.

Winners for weight-loss during July were Ruth Breaud, for shedding nine pounds, Janet Steid, almost nine, and Brenda Kettler for about the same amount.

Members of the group have celebrated this summer with a picnic at the home of Betty Paulson and will finish off summer activities at the end of August with a picnic.

League Opens

The Kentalwood Alley Kats Bowling League will begin its season on Sept. 5, at 9 a.m. at the Farmington Lanes. Both novices and experienced bowlers will bowl for the first two weeks to establish averages. For further information, call Bonnie Cunningham, 476-4055.
