HARRIETT AND DAVE GOLDMAN had a three-week vacation down in the warm Caribbean. They flew to New York City Dec. 20 where they spent one day.

The next day they flew to Aruba where they had three wonderful weeks before going on to Curacao for three days.

Barbara and Jim Capolino flew to California Dec. 27 for the Rose Bowl Game. They stayed in Beverly Hills, enjoyed the game, and flew home Jan. 3.

Kenneth and Bernice Myers are enjoying their summer home all year round. They have 300 acres near Gaylord in which Kenneth has built a five bedroom home.

The whole family enjoys skiing, their snowmobiles, hunting, and swimming. They are in the process of making a 10 to 12-acre lake on their property. They spend many weekends there, and plan to go there this weekend.

Ed, now a junior at Western University planned to join them there. I hope they were able to make it - they have to phone ahead to be sure they can get in with all this snow.

Bridie O'Shaughnessy had a long vacation from the University of Colorado in Boulder. The college combined the Christmas and semester break periods so she got home Dec. 21 and did not have to return until last Sunday.

Kendallwood Kommentare

With all the white stuff falling, more reports on skiers. The John Manecke family of Quakertown, who are members of Hillden Valley in Gaylord, (also known as Otsego Ski Club) have been up at least three times and sking at a few more trips to the club. And I must mention that Joyce Gleiss of Kendallwood Two is on ski patrol at Mt. Brighton every Tuesday and Wednesday.

And a bunch of gals can be seen schussing (not allowed in most areas) and sking at Alpine Valley on Ladies Day. Saw the following there the other Tuesday: Cynthia Lawrence, Alice Scott, Lois Garrie and daughter Ann, who is four, Lila Ellsworth, Jan Salsbury, Joan Scituro and Joann McCallum.

The Scituro family of Halsted had a nice holiday at Boyne Mountain. And last weekend the Lee McCallum family accompanied by the Merritt family went to Snow Valley and Pinnacle at Gaylord for a weekend of skiing and snowmobiling. There are 50 miles of snowmobile trails at the Pinnacles.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stock of Edgemoor entertained their son Vincent and his wife Patricia recently from Santa Barbara, Calif.

It was Vincent's first trip home in nine years and the first visit for his wife. They enjoyed the snow and ice skating. They returned to California last week where they will resume teaching. Vincent is a junior at Michigan State in a suburb of Santa Barbara.

Patricia is a physical education teacher at a university. She is the author of a recent book "Personal Defense" which is one of the subjects she teaches. She also travels to the different universities and appears before clubs lecturing on her book and has appeared on TV.

Another son, Larry, and his wife are teachers at Fort Lauderdale High School. He is now working on his PhD in humanities. Another son, James, lives in Detroit and works for Chrysler. His wife, Alice, is teaching also. Mrs. Stock was a former teacher. Mr. Stock is a retired postal clerk and runs a bus for Farmington schools for several years. The Stock's two daughters, Mary and Lorraine, are local residents. Mr. and Mrs. Stock have resided in Farmington the past 33 years. (I am very proud of them and their wonderful family.)

Mr. and Mrs. George Anusbig of Whittington St. just returned from a wonderful vacation in Bermuda. While there were gone Grandma, Jeff, Kevin and Tony.
