Page 6A★ (P-8A, R-4A)

POLLING THE DELEGATION -- The 19th Congressional District delegation takes a poll on a crucial issue at last weekend's Democratic state convention. Observer newspapers Roving Editor Dennis Pajot was the only newsman to cover the delega-tion in depth. (Observer photo)

'Student Power' May Be Unleashed

By TIM RICHARD College towns could be flooded with studen vortes i the Democratic State Corver tion become law dorsed to 18 and starting a petition of 18 and starting a petition to the town where the bire while attending school rather than in felt evon the parenti residenci The special state corvers in Starting a petition to vote in the town where the bire while attending school rather than in felt evon the parenti residenci The special states of the parenti residenci to a starting a petition to vote in the town where the bire while attending school rather than in felt evon the parenti residenci The special states of the parenti residenci to a starting a petition to set in the town where the starte than in felt evon the parenti residenci the attending school rather than in for vorting the are a lien against property only property owners should be able to hoprove the lien-tion han school stude the starte theory of the starte should be able to the flood to the starte should be able to the flood the starte should be able to approve the than the starte the should be able to approve the than han searly 40,000 starte start han but 40,000 starte starts han but 40,000 starte

THE UNIVERSITY of Mich-igan has nearly 40,000 stu-dents. Michigan State Univer-sity has about 40,000, and Western Michigan University has about 20,000. If all voted, they could constitute a power IRVING ROZIAN of Plymouth argued against adopting both the student and no-prop-erty proposals as a package

The leader of the New Demo ocartic Casilitation of Mehigan says his liberal wang of the Democratic Darity will guth approximation of the second and the second second second Alvin rishman made the anouncement on the floor of last weekend is Democratic state convention alter the convention rights is besuccess primary. The second second part is at the second part is many as 1100 NDC mem-bers of this liberal antiwarius the state second to capture the fange of nearly all mem-bers of this liberal antiwarius CAUCUS of 200 NDC mem-

NDC To Push For Primary

With Petitions

bloc equal to or greater than the present voting residents of Ann Arbor. East Lansing and Kalamazoo. The Democrats endorsed abolition of virtually all resi-dency requirements. too. Michigan presently requires six months of residency in a state and 30 days in a precinct before a registration could be accepted probably gubernatorial candi-date. Harris. who benefited greatly from student campaign workers in his surpfies victory in a normally Republicant town, solf the state should 'let band where they read the pap-er. not where their parents skeep and read the paper.' Levin, whose well-greased they minutes before he took the flow, argued that studening are leve minutes before he took the flow, argued that studening the college towns and therefore should have the right to vote there. The student vote, rather than changing the character of the officient of those town as they really are.'' he said tion. But the selections of ac-tual delegates would be done by adherents of each candidate at the regular party district caucuses.

Livonie Grosse Pointe 33111 Plymouth Road 20746 Mack Ave, 261-5170 TU 4-3800

The 19th Congressional Dia trict delegation to the Demon cratic Party reform conver-trict delegation to the Demon almost exact proportion to the denomination of a presidential pri-mary. Quotes of some of the key delegates reveal this better than anything else. Observert Newspapers presents them bere. THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY question was almost caused of the presidential pre-residential preferences. THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY question was almost caused of candidate almost caused of candidate the reform connect he presidential pre-presidential preferences. Here is Wath Dis-trict delegation are working the presidential pre-trict delegation are working the pre-dential preferences. JOHN DE WAN, member of tion" method of candidate selection. Equally aroused New Demo-cratic Coalition delegates and moderate forces of party regu-lars sensed such opposition and tried to circumvent it with a compromise.

By DENNIS PAJOT

lars sensed such opposition and tried to circumvent it with a compromise. The compression would have the compression of the sense of the sense of the sense tion. As presented to the conven-tion, it would have had the number of national convention delegates supporting candi-dates selected in priportion to their voise in a primary elec-mary: JOHN DE WAN, member of the 18th District serving as UAW and no conditionation who worked for a passage of the party as a party. It keeps can-dictates separate from the party. What would you need the response of a nationwide party. Our opposition is pased on andictate expense required to participate in the

Dems' Split On Primary

19th District Reflects

ALAN SULTAN, law profes-sor, delegate from Farming-ton. NDC member, and a backer of a compromise to combine the provisions of "pure" prinary and conven-tion reform:

"The Millender compromise amendment is the best possible compromise between the lib-eral and moderate coalitions."

JEANEANE HAVSTAD Livonia member of the NDC who resisted the state NDC effort to win a compromise primary: "They're selling out. Instead of taking a position of strength in principle on the pure prima-ry. they're going begging for alms."

ERNIE SEAY. Pontiac black delegate allied with Wayne 19th Democratic Chair-man Ron Mardiros of Livonia but who voted against any form of primary:

"The way most of us (blacks) see it, it would be a disadvantage to have a pri-mary. We would be obligated to cast wo pledged ballots at the national convention and George Wallace might have RON MARDIROS, whose RON MARDIROS, whose glik Wayne leadership role has been forged by the support of the New Democratic Coalition regulars and labor and who voted for the Millender pri-mary compromise: "Certainly in a primary, "Certainly in a primary, the status of the action. Ernie torgets that his delegation would get its share."

would get its share." ALDO VAGNOZZI, chair-man of the total 19th District, a Parmington resident and edi-total 19th District, a Parmington resident and edi-total for the reform conven-ing could live with a primary system that would be com-bined with the good portions of the (reform convention) min-nority report, I was in support of the concept of the Millender amendment but abstained on LOBE to the table to the table of the CORD-LOBE to the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of the construction of the table of the table of the table of the table of the construction of the table of table won primary support. We appointed." It did, and she was. and put them where we need them." . . .

GERALDINE MCNABB. Orchard Lake, favorite of the NDC, and a member of the Haber Political Reform Com-

"If the minority report pas-ses, I will be very deeply dis-

SID DIAMOND, Livonia leader of the grape boycott, wore a labor union sponsored "Reform Yes, Primary No" badge.

DON CHRISTIE, Redford

PAUL KADISH. Livonia former Democratic Club chair-man who anounced his candi-dacy for the State Senate just before the convention and voted against the Millender primary and against the re-form convention system: "My intent has been to vote for the Haber Commission majority report" (pure pri-mary).

BILLIE FARNUM, former BILLIE FARNUM, former 19th District congressma and a member of the Haber Com-mission who cast his votes privately to the delegation chairman: "I wasn't with either the majority or minority of the commission on the primary issue. I'm for, as I have been, a national presidential pri-mary in all states uniformly."

Township Trustee, voted against the minority report for convention reform.

FAMILY ROOMS

31245 EIGHT MILE ROAD at MERRIMAN

Lots of FREE easy-in, easy-out PARKING

ŝ

THE PROPOSAL to let stu-dents vote in college towns got vigorous support from Ann Arbor Mayor Robert Harris and State Sen Sander Levin, a probably gubernatorial candi-date.

He urged the NDC caurus to sporte the compromise and commit itself to going it alone. Al spher. NDC member and chairman of the Farmington Democratic Club, likewide re-fused to support the compro-mial lan Sultan, Farmington law professor who originally proposed a similar compro-omse in the 19th District pre-convention convention, agreed to a.

BR 3-8921

compromise failed by 248 works. Among the components ever Lional membras of the NDC, voting in the 19th Congress-sional District defegation. Livopia's NDC had been the most ambitious circulators of a primary petition late last year. About 6000 signatures have been tailied to date, with another the state of the state of the additional state of the state of the reference of the state of the state reference of the state reference of the state of the state of the state reference of the state of the state of the state reference of the state of the state of the state state of the state of the state of the state of the state state of the state of the state of the state of the state state of the state of the state of the state of the state state of the state of the state of the state of the state state of the state of the state of the state of the state state of the state of the state of the state of the state state of the state of the state of the state of the state state of the state of th

JOHN REED KOZA of Red-ford called the party presiden-tial primary proposal a "phon-y" and a "fraud." He drafted the NDC petition and a similar proposal that has already been submitted to the Legislature.

and, Washienaw County, with its said. Washienaw County, with its ford called the party president defegates, contributed 37-9 between the vortex of the vorte the Highland State recreation Area. Attendance at state parks, motor vehicle and camp per-mit are triple over what they were a year ago this week, said the DNR agent.

AND AND A STATE AN

LUMBER CO., DIV. 12222 Inkster Road O P E N S U N D A Y

JOHN A. ANGUILM, chief of the DNF is ave enforcement division, reported last week that complaints reaching his field officers and Lansing off-ice indicate that many of anonyed by the disturbance of the believes consideration should would ban the use of snowmo-bies statewes would still allow hunters to use the mochanes to wooded areas which otherwise would not be accessible to them. Anguillam reasoned. ANCULIAM ALSO RE-ANGUILM ALSO RE-PORTED that his officers are

Phone 476-6240 537-2645

Ð