

Mercy cagers rip Borgess

Mercy's Denise Basford, who is recovering from a foot injury, scored 10 points and had eight assists. Kathy Landry scored 14 points for Bishop Borgess, which trailed by 15 points (33-18) at halftime.

DIANE CONVERY I'll be senior recognition night on Tuesday,

Oct. 28, when Mercy hosts Harper Woods Regina. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

In another game, Livonia Stevenson's Kathy Finn scored only one field goal against Farmington High, but it came in the closing seconds and boosted the Livonia squad to a 47-45 victory in the Inter Lakes League.

Beth Mueller and Karen Kelley scored 20 and nine points, respectively, for Stevenson, which has an 11-2 record overall and a 5-1 mark in the league.

Farmington, which had beaten Stevenson by one point earlier this season, got 16 points from forward Chris Looser and 14 from center Stacy Green.

"Stevenson's press really bothered us," said Farmington coach Bob Lekovich. "We got in a little bit of foul trouble in the second half, and Stevenson was hitting the free throws. Nine of the 17 points in the last quarter were on free throws."

The game gave the officials a real workout — a total of 51 fouls were called, 30 on Farmington. Three Farmington players and two Stevenson girls fouled out.

Farmington hosts city rival North Farmington at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN coach George Sommerman wasn't pleased with his team's showing in its 54-31 win over North Farmington in the Northwest Suburban League Thursday.

"We were kind of flat," Sommerman said. "North is an improving club, and I think we were kind of looking down the road to our game against Wayne Memorial."

Three examples of profits that outpaced inflation:

1. During 1979, Stacy Finn (a young woman) invested $500 in gold. Gold prices ranged from $175 to $249 per ounce. Potential profit of this range: approximately $7500 per ounce contract. (Margin required was $1500 per contract.)
2. During 1979, December 1979 Gold prices ranged from $175 to $249 per ounce. Potential profit of this range: approximately $7500 per ounce contract. (Margin required was $1500 per contract.)
3. During the past year, December 1979 Stacy Finn (a young woman) invested $500 in gold. Gold prices ranged from $175 to $249 per ounce. Potential profit of this range: approximately $7500 per ounce contract. (Margin required was $1500 per contract.)

Each of the above moves, and the many others that could be cited, involved substantial risk. But they do make an important point: speculating in futures can be an effective weapon in coping with inflation.

Is this type of speculation right for you? It depends on your temperament and the risk capital available. Merrill Lynch believes you should have over $75,000 in net worth, at least $10,000 in risk capital, and minimum of $5,000 to open an account.

If you're an investor looking for bigger profit opportunities, we suggest you come to our free seminar: "Speculating on Inflation." You'll learn some of the most sophisticated methods for trading in interest rates, foreign currencies and precious metals futures. And you'll have a chance to ask any questions you may have about this fascinating area of speculation.
