

Farmington lights up for a social evening

Enjoying the Botsford Inn cuisine during the Farmington Chamber's annual dinner are (from left) Wally Wasilewski, Mary Wagner and Bob Walker.

Floyd Cairns (left) last year's Citizen of the Year, was present to greet his two new colleagues in this elite group of Farmington area residents. Talking with Cairns is Farmington Hills Councilmember Jan Dolan.

Dorothy Lane, wife of Chamber Executive Director Ed Lane, talks with Tim Doyle about the Citizen of Year nominations. Doyle was in charge of this year's project.

Staff photos by Randy Boist

PRESENTED TO
ALLAN L. KENERSON
FARMINGTON-FARMINGTON HILLS
1980
CO-CHIEF OF THE YEAR
FOR OUTSTANDING SERVICE
TO THE COMMUNITY

Congratulating Al Kenerson as one of this year's Citizens of the Year was YMCA employee Dave Seefeld (left). Kenerson was joined by many friends and family members to celebrate the honor which was accorded to him after his years of struggle to see a new YMCA facility built.

(Continued on Page 1A)
Headlee was nominated by Jervis Webb executive John Anderson, a chamber board member.
"Without shirking his responsibilities to the Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Co. or to his family, he plunged into the tax limitation struggle with vigor and unlimited personal commitment," said the nominating project.

Presently, Headlee serves on the Michigan Chamber of Commerce

Board of Directors and the Oakland University Board of Trustees.

He is a member of the Bloomfield Hills Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints.

Among his past accomplishments are serving as vice president of government relations for U.S. Jaycees and president of the U.S. Jaycees.

In 1966 he was an advisor to Gov. George Romney and served with the Romney for President Committee in 1967-68.

Larry Brown (left) enjoys some casual conversation over coffee with Bill and Wilma Bliss and Bob Sellers.

Put two political pros at the same dinner table and you're bound to have some colorful discussions. That was the case at last week's Farmington Chamber Commerce Dinner when Richard Headlee (left) and Chamber Vice President Margaret Halava sat together.

the Marketplace

hudson's

MAGAZINE OF FINE FOOD AND CREATIVE LIVING

NOVEMBER

CUISINE

Thanksgiving Menu • Italian Wines • Onion Festival • Caves of Roquefort

Meet Cuisine Magazine editors. Then invite the family for Thanksgiving dinner. delicious new twists. See what's cooking with Pat and Bert: Eastland, Wednesday, November 5 at 12:30 to 2:30; and Northland, 6:30 to 8:30; Oakland, Thursday, November 6 at 12:30 to 2:30. In The Marketplace at Hudson's.