Antioch asks help in newspaper drive

Antioch Lutheran Church at 13 Mile and Farmington roads in Farmington Hills will conduct its fourth waste paper drive on the weekend of Jan. 10-11 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. Funds from the paper drives are used to help needy Farmington or Farmington Hills families make utility bill payments. The Oakland Livingston Human Services Agency assists in the program, which helps those ineligible for existing state programs. Antioch is also using a portion of the funds collected to assist the Farmington Headstart preschool program at Fairview Elementary School.

Residents who wish to help are asked to deliver newspapers, tied in bundles or in bags, to the waste paper container on the church parking lot. For pickups of large amounts call 553-0338 evenings.

Because of the poor economy, it is hoped that more residents will save their waste paper to donate to the church's effort.

Selected for Who's Who

Seven Detroit Bible College students have been selected by the faculty for the 1980-81 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Standing from left are Jerry James, Ben Walker, Gerry Mayes, Randy Rheame and Archie Gittins. Seated are Carole Zajac and Sue Kline. The seven were nominated on the basis of their scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, Christian service, citizenship and service to the college.
