

Hearken local seafarers

Grosse Pointe mariner Douglas Deacon, circumnavigator of Lake Huron, Georgian Bay and the North Channel, will speak to local seafarers 7-9 p.m. Tuesdays beginning Jan. 27 at the Rackham Memorial, 60 Farnsworth in Detroit's Cultural Center.

Preparations for long-distance cruising, summer weather conditions, heavy weather seamanship on Lake Huron and natural and man-made aids to navigation will be discussed.

Films will be shown and excursions on and off shore will be suggested.

Fee for the seven-week course is $55. Senior citizens and each additional family member may attend for $25.

To register by Visa or Mastercard, call 577-4665.

To register by mail, send name, address and phone number to Mariner's Guide, UCAE, 60 Farnsworth, Detroit 48202.

Checks are payable to Wayne State University.

Covered, attached parking is available at the Cultural Center.

Teepee icers top tournament

The Southfield Teepee, a recreation hockey team, won the Mite (6-8 year old) championship at the Novi Christmas Tournament last week. The Southfield team, coached by Ken Berke, won four tournament games and tied one.

In the Mite finals, Southfield edged the Farmington North Stars, 3-2, as Kevin Berke scored two goals, and Marc Cohen and Erik Houser each had one. In earlier tournament games, Southfield beat the Farmington Leafs (4-1), the Farmington North Stars (3-2), and the Westland Islanders (4-2), and battled the Farmington Flyers to an 8-all tie.

Berke had two hat tricks (three goals in a game) during the tournament, and Cohen received two playmaker awards for having three or more assists in a game. Teepee Alan Kanton earned two playmaker awards, and teammate John Bowman had one.

OCC-St. Clair game a freebie

Alumni of Oakland Community College, take note. You can watch OCC's basketball team play St. Clair Community College free this Saturday night just by showing an old college ID card or report card at the door.

OCC, coached by Tom McPhillips, will play St. Clair at 8 p.m. in OCC's new gymnasium on the campus on Orchard Lake Road at I-695 in Farmington Hills. Adult admission is $1. No charge is made to current OCC students with an ID card.

Mascarin turns pro

Grosse Pointe junior tennis star Susan Mascarin will hit the big time Feb. 2-8. The 16-year-old qualified to compete in Detroit's Avon Championship Tennis Circuit along with the likes of Tracy Austin, Billie Jean King, Betty Stove and Pam Shriver.

The University-Liggett student, currently the No. 1 junior player, is ranked No. 37 in the women's tennis international computer standings.

Mascarin captured the 1980 U.S. Open and Italian Open junior titles and on Dec. 28, she won the International Orange Bowl Championships.

She has also been named Junior Player of the Year by the International Federation of Judges.

Mascarin plans to compete in the Avon Championships this month in Kansas City and Chicago preceding her appearance at Detroit's Cobo Arena.

The high school junior is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Telly Mascarin.

The Avon Championships of Detroit, presented locally by the Greater Detroit Oldsmobile Dealers, is staged by the Junior League of Birmingham.

Tickets may be ordered by mail from TENNIS, 123 West Brown, Birmingham, Mich. 48011.

Tickets are also available at the Joe Louis Arena Box Office, the Junior League office in Birmingham, Hudson's and all C.T.C. outlets.

Tickets range in price from $4-$12. For more information, call 646-0445.

sport shorts

If you're getting hot on these cross country skis and would welcome some competition, head out for the annual Snow Rush cross country ski race at Independence Oaks Feb. 1.

Trophies will be presented to the winners of the five- and 15-kilometer races for novices and advanced skiers.

A trophy will also go to the winner of the two-kilometer children's race. Race time is 10 a.m. Entry fee is $3 and pre-registration is required. Call 625-0877 for more information.

FUN RUN

Weight training for runners and a Fun Run will highlight Sunday morning, Jan. 18 at the Jewish Community Center.

Starting time is 9 a.m. at the Jewish Community Center lobby, 6600 W. Maple in West Bloomfield.

Runners may choose from one-mile, three-mile or six-mile runs over scenic residential roads.

Refreshments will be available after the run. For more information, call 661-1000.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Singles 35-and-over are invited to serve up some aces in the Jewish Community Center's tennis tournament on Sunday. This could be your chance to follow through on that New Year's resolution to get physically fit.

The tournament is open to the public and the fee is $6.

Awards will go to first-through fifth-place finishers.

For more information, call 661-1000, ext. 180 for more information.

COURT TIME

If your excuse has been crowded courts, you can now dig out that racquet and play some tennis.

Springfield Oaks Activities Center in Davisburg offers court time 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays and 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursdays.

Evening court time is available by advance request.

Cost is $1 per person per hour and registration is required 24 hours in advance.

For more information or reservations, phone 625-8133.

SKI TOUR

A day of non-competitive cross country skiing for families will be featured at Jan. 18 at Independence Oaks County Park on Sashabaw Road in Clarkston.

Call 858-5384 for more information.
