

Can't beat the price

The music series at Central Woodward Christian Church, 3955 W. Big Beaver, Troy, is one of the all-time best entertainment bargains. Admission is free for the series, which continues at 5 p.m. Jan. 25 with the Duo Vivo, Laura Hunter, saxophone, and Brian Connelly, piano. They performed in the Eurotreff International Music Festival in Tübingen, West Germany, and around the eastern and midwestern U.S. Their program includes works from Corelli to Germaine. Ms. Hunter studied with Donald Sinta when she was a student at the University of Michigan School of Music and Connelly is a student of Gyorgy Sandor. The concert is sponsored in part by the Michigan Council for the Arts.

DuMouchelle Galleries gives appraisals Jan. 31

Laurence DuMouchelle and representatives from DuMouchelle Galleries in Detroit will be in Farmington on Jan. 31 to participate in an "Art Appraisal Clinic" sponsored as a benefit for the Farmington Genealogical Society.

The clinic will run from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Orchard United Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Road, between 13 and 14 mile roads.

Written appraisals will be given on any antique or collectable except jewelry.

Persons may bring up to five items to be appraised and will be charged $3 for each item. In turn they will be given a written description of the item along with its current market value.

In addition to appraisers at the clinic, DuMouchelle buyers will be there for the purchase of fine antiques, notably, china, figurines, music boxes, paintings and oriental rugs.

No advance registration will be taken. All items must be carried in, and registration will be made at the door. Registration will close promptly at 4 p.m.

KAY WILSON, president of the Farmington Genealogical Society, says:

"This is a terrific opportunity to get an appraisal suitable for insurance purposes at an unbelievably low price by the most reputable antique dealer in the metro area."

Churches all alike?
No, not really. Do you know what your Church believes about the Bible?

The Evangelical Free Church believes:

The Scriptures, both Old and New Testaments, to be the inspired Word of God, without error in the original writings, the complete revelation of His will for the salvation of men, and the Divine and final authority for all Christian faith and life.
