

club circuit

FARMINGTON AREA PRESCHOOL COUNCIL meets at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Fairview Elementary School, 28500 Oak Crest, Farmington Hills.

The council is sponsored by Preschool Committee of Farmington Youth Assistance.

Guest speaker for the evening is a representative from American Red Cross who will give a presentation on first aid for all persons employed in area preschools.

RESOLVE, an Ann Arbor based group which provides information, referrals and support to persons with reproductive problems, hosts an open meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Ann Arbor public library, 343 S. Fifth St., Ann Arbor.

Marion McClatchey, a social worker, leads a panel of adoptive parents under the heading "A Discussion on Adoption." No charge.

Inquiries about Resolve will be taken by calling Kate Sullivan, 994-3299.

OAKLAND COUNTY PLATE COLLECTORS SOCIETY meets at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 25, in the Community Room, Oakland Mall, 14 Mile and John R in Troy.

This will be the first meeting of the group after its organization meeting last month.

The group invites all area persons who are interested in collecting limited edition plates.

Inquiries about the society will be taken by calling Patricia Kramer, 477-5923.

Mercy Center lists open swim hours

Open swimming, at $1 per person or $2 for a family, begins this week in Mercy Center's pool, 28600 11 Mile Road.

Hours are from noon-1 p.m. Monday through Friday; from 4-5 p.m. Sunday; and from 5:30-6:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Handicapped persons may use the pool from 5:30-6 p.m. Monday and Wednesdays. Swimmers need to bring assistants with them, if one is needed. The swimmer will be charged $1, but there is no charge for his or her assistant.

ISTS meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 26, in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile Road between Farmington Road and Orchard Lake Road.

The meeting is the group's annual show and tell night.

Members invite guests to bring anything of interest to share with the nature-loving group.

DETROIT PALETTE AND BRUSH CLUB meets at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 27, in MCL Cafeteria, Tel-12 Mall, on Telegraph and 12 Mile Road, Southfield.

A general meeting will include a minicourse given by member Charlotte Pickering. She will explain the lost wax method used to create her small bronze sculptured pieces.

Following lunch, members will hear a program given by Sam Fields, art promoter and owner of Field Art Studio. He will speak on framing art work.

LAMAZE CHILDBIRTH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF LIVONIA offers a hospital-approved class designed for couples anticipating a Cesarean section delivery.

The four-week class runs from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesday beginning Jan. 28 in Botsford Hospital's Professional Building, 28950 Grand River.

The reasons for, as well as the procedures, of a Cesarean will be discussed along with the emotional, psychological and physiological effects of a Cesarean delivery.

The fee is $20 per couple. The class is led by Judy Stachura, a registered nurse who has given birth by Cesarean.

Completion of the class allows the father to be present at delivery in Providence Hospital.

Registrations are being taken by Yvonne Bouchard, 464-1215.

FARMINGTON HILLS JUNIOR WOMEN invite guests to the meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, in the home of Rae Howard, 34466 Mayfair Court, in Rolling Oaks Subdivision.

Guests for the evening are members of a Sweet Adeline quartet, led by Sue Arabian.

Membership inquiries will be taken by Sandy Donlon, 661-1684.

THE GATHERING PLACE began a class in lip reading and sign language Tuesday. Seniors who wish to learn lip reading are invited to attend the sessions which begin at 10:30 a.m.; those who wish to learn sign language will begin classes at 11:15 a.m.

Both sessions will be taught by Ann Fogle, a student at Madonna College, in the Gathering Place, located in Mercy Center, on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt Road.

The classes are free of charge and are open to all area seniors as well as service providers and families and friends of the hearing impaired.

A certificate of achievement will be given at the end of the course.

Reservations are now being taken for seniors who will board a bus and head south to the Westgate Dinner Theatre in Toledo on the morning of Wednesday, Feb. 11.

Package price of $26.50 includes transportation, lunch and tickets for the performance of "Carousel."

Tax aides will be in the Gathering Place to help seniors with their 1980 federal and state income tax forms from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Tuesdays, Feb. 3, 10, 17 and 24. The service is free.

Visitors to The Gathering Place are asked to enter Mercy Center on Gate 4 on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt Road.

FARMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL BOOSTERS CLUB invites all members and parents of students to its monthly board meeting at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 2 in the school library.

On the monkey bridge

Boy Scout John Suh works his way across an astant, sometimes known as a monkey bridge, used for crossing small streams or ravines, and built by members of Troop 179. It was one of many activities for the troop who camped at D Bar A Scout Ranch in Metamora before the winter holidays. The scouts are back in their home base, Church of Christ on 11 Mile Road, and invite boys from 10-18 to join them for their weekly meetings. Dr. John Richardson, scoutmaster of Troop 179, will take inquiries by calling him at 476-4320.
