

Two sought in $5,000 restaurant robbery

Farmington police are looking for two suspects who held up a Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant Jan. 10 and escaped with $5,000 after holding several employees at gunpoint.

The men were armed with a sawed-off shotgun and a handgun and entered the building, at 20740 Farmington Road, through a rear door with an employee who came outside to place trash in a dumpster.

The robbery occurred at 10:30 p.m., shortly after the store closed. Just a handful of employees were left inside. The intruders forced the store manager to crawl on the floor to a safe while one of the suspects followed with a gun pointed to his head.

The second suspect stayed in the back room with the rest of the employees held at gunpoint.

The loot was stashed in a bag bearing the restaurant's emblem. The duo then left through the rear door after ripping out a telephone cord and stacking 50-pound boxes of shortening against the door to block their captives' escape.

Both are described as in their mid-to-late 20s. One suspect had a full beard, silver wire rimmed glasses, was more than six feet tall and slim. The second suspect wore a ski mask.

Blood drives slated

A number of blood drives are scheduled throughout southeastern Michigan during February.

Eligible blood donors need not be a member of one of the organizations sponsoring a blood drive in order to give blood.

Increased usage of blood and blood components as medical therapy has resulted in an increasing demand for blood donations, reports the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross supplies all of the blood and blood products used by the 75 hospitals in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw and St. Clair counties which comprise the southeastern Michigan regional blood service.

Blood can be donated by anyone 17 through 65 years old in good general health. Seventeen-year-old donors must have parental consent. A blood donation takes less than an hour and is painless.

Blood drives in the Farmington area include:

- Friday, Feb. 6, Botsford Hospital, 28050 Grand River, 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. For an appointment, call 476-7600 during blood drive hours.

- Monday, Feb. 9, North Farmington High School, 32900 W. 13 Mile Road, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. For an appointment, call 626-2511 during blood drive hours.

- Wednesday, Feb. 18, Oakland Community College, 27055 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. For an appointment call 552-8900, ext. 230, during blood drive hours.
