

OCC ousted by Highland Park, 74-65

Oakland Community College gave Highland Park all it could handle in a Michigan Community College Athletic Association (MCCAA) basketball game last week.

The Parkers were tied with Oakland at 35 by halftime but outscored their visitors 39-30 in the second half to win, 74-65.

Oakland's Chris Lee was the game's high scorer with 23 points, while teammates John James had 13 and Jack Dakesian (Southfield-Lathrup) added 12.

with 18 points, and Evaristo Perez had 17.

Highland Park owns a 9-5 league record (15-8 overall), while Oakland's mark drops to 3-9 (5-11). Macomb (6-7 and 13-9) will play at Oakland on Saturday at the Orchard Ridge campus.

The Oakland Community College women's basketball team recently defeated Highland Park, 56-55.

Kris Lussier had a game-high 24 points, and added 10 rebounds in a game described by Raider coach Larry Hoja as "very exciting over a very good Highland Park team."

The game was tight all the way, with the Lady Parkers holding a 55-54 advantage with just eight seconds left. However, Lussier scored the game-winning basket with four seconds remaining.

Oakland, which earlier had lost to a tough Flint Mott team, is now 3-5 overall.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Coach Nancy Felkens' Raiders will travel to Florida in early March to begin training.

The Raiders will also be represented at the National Junior College Championships in Ocala, Fla. in May. Oakland's participants will be Lisa Cockerill (Royal Oak Kimball) and Kim Luti-

(Lake Orion).

OCC BASEBALL

The Oakland Community College baseball team will depart for spring training in Florida later this month.

Coach Craig Medlen has 30 players working out, including 12 from last year's Region XII fourth-place team. Mark Andrus, a graduate of Auburn Heights Avenue High School, will be one of five returning pitchers.

Other local athletes include Greg Wagner (Troy Athens), Brian Young (Birmingham Seaholm), John Klees (Rochester Adams), Brian Depew (Troy), Tim O'Malley (Farmington), and Tom Cundy (Farmington Harrison). The Raiders will play 16 games in Florida. Medlen said the raiders must receive better hitting this year.

OCC SOCCER

David Hicklin recently received first-team All-American soccer honors by the National Junior College Athletic Association. Hicklin, a freshman and resident of Farmington Hills, was the No. 1 player as selected by the committee representing the tri-state area (Michigan-Ohio-Indiana).

OLSM cagers sharp from line

Orchard Lake St. Mary's College's basketball team put it all on the line — the free throw line, that is — last Saturday and made the school's homecoming a happy affair with a 97-85 win over the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

OLSM shot a deadly 96.8 percent from the line, sinking 31 of 32 attempts.

Scott Glidden, a 6-foot-3 junior guard from Utica Ford High, was high for OLSM with 20 points, including four of five free throws. Teammate Mark Sulek went three-for-three from the line and contributed 19 points. OLSM's Brian Grimesinger dropped in eight straight free throws on his way to an 18-point evening.

John Zannis scored 23 points for UMD, which trailed by six (42-36) at halftime.

OLSM, now 13-9 under head coach Tim Domke, plays next on Saturday at home against Spring Arbor College. Game time is 7:30 p.m.
