AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RE-TIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills Chapter 2088, meet al 1:30 parmington Hills Community Library. The library is on 12 Mile Road between Farmington and Orchard Lake roads. Program for the afternoon will be furnished by The Farmington Steppers, a dance troupe from The Gathering Place.

PALETTE AND BRUSH CLUB of

(Continued from Page 1B)

"And dying people have to have spe-cial food," she says. "The drought was worse than last summer and they were dealing both with that drought and a

Arpin 🕅

55th

Oakland County offers a program and demonstation given by one of its mem-bers, Eddie Joppich, in the meeting that begins at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 24 in MCL Cateteria, in Tel-12 Mall, on 12 Mile Road and Telegraph, South-facta field field. Mrs. Joppich, a Farmington resident and member of Farmington Artists Cub, will tak on "Experimental Meth-ods In Mirred Media and Collage." The artist is now teaching water col-or classes in cooperation with Visual Art Association of Livona. She is a co-owner of Wall-Art with another Farm-ington artist, Marjoric Chellstorp. A one-woman show of her work is

WOMEN'S EXCHANGE, a newly or-ganized women's network sponsored by YWCA of Western Wayne County, meets for dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Feb. 23, in Vladimir's Resturant, 28125 Grand Bluer Farmineton Grand River, Farmington. After-dinner speaker is Rick Leffke, a Dale Carneigie trainer and counsel-lor, whose topic is "Is Your Attitude Worth Catching?"

Women's Exchange, known as WE, was formed to serve as a networking for women with informal gatherings of career oriented women in an atmos-phere for discussion of issues, interests, resources and experiences. Networking is defined as linking with others to share information, explore ideas and develop an ever-expanding community of contacts and connec-tions.

now on display in Detroit Council of the Arts, Cadillac Towers Building. It will remain through March 13. During the meeting member Janice Rowe of Franklin will display a mini-exhibit of her work. Another highlight will be a book review, given by Jerrine Habsburg of Farmington Hills. tions. Regular monthly meetings are scheduled for the fourth Monday of every month. Notation of meeting sites will run throughout the western Wayne communities. Pre-paid reservations are $12 for guests. They can be made by calling the Y, $61-1110.

club circuit

tions.

BETH ACHIM SISTERHOOD hosts Deena Pearlman, community consult-ant for Michigan office, Anti-Defama-tion League of B'nai Brith at 12:30 p.m. D

Monday, Feb. 23 in the synagogue lounge, 21100 12 Mile Road, Southfield. Her talk is called "The Rise of the Clan and Nazi Activities in the U.S." Ms. Pearlman comes from WDIV-

TV, where for two years she developed and produced daily talk shows. During her tenure at station KYW in Philadel-phia she created the pilot for a Jewish public affairs program that is still in existance today.

stance today. he was educated at University of insylvania and Baltimore Hebrew She Pennsylvania and Baltimore Hebrew College, and has extensive experience with Brai Brith. A petite luncheon will be served. Guests are welcomed and there are no reservations. A charge of $1 will be asked at the door from non-members.

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR WOMEN.; (NOW), Northwest Wayne Chapter, mwet at 7:30 pm. Wednesday. Feb 25, 16 the little theater in Hoover. Elemental² School, on Levan, between. Five and Str Mile roads, Livonia. Memberjabi jnquiries will be taken by calling Janet Evans, 476-3352.

FARMINGTON AREA NATURAL-ISTS meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Feb. 23 in Farmington Hills Community Li-brary on 12 Mile Road. Program for the evening is called "Ecosystem of the Boreal Forest," led by Duane Duman.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 23352 Farmington Road, Farmington 48024, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.

by Duane Duman. All meetings of the club are open to guests without charge.

THE GATHERING PLACE sched-ules two special events for Tuesday, Feb. 24.

At 11:30 a.m. Patti Eisenberg, a psy-chiatric therapist in Southfield, ad-dresses the group on coping, living and enjoying, life atlera a stroke. Her talk is beneficial to stroke patients as well as members of the family of one who has had a stroke. William Tyndale College, formerly

At 1:30 p.m. naturalist Harley Thorn-on leads guests on a winter nature

SEMINARS ...

BY CLOTHILDE AUTHOR + LECTURER

STEWART

FABRICS

646-0665 5 ت

11

8-4-74

」 11巻

e Nghi Nand Reg § 189

Headboard F 3 Reg 5404

dma s Bouse Chest Reg $249

Upstars Deck artights Reg $229

Pedatent Mirror Reg $164

E DollHouse Chest Reg $249

E Boarding House Chest drop lid Reg $ 149

D. General Store Cabinet 2 doors Rog $249

$135

[;]289

179،

°159

179،

$119

^{$}179

$249

Ê

ton leads guests on a winter nature walk. He will share his knowlege of nature along the way pointing out animal tracks, animał dens and nests, possible sighting of hawks, and tree silhouettes hat, in her still weakend state, came down with a severe case of the fut. Some day in the future Ms. Payne will return to Somalia, tough she swaars never on a cargo plane' and he has a number of reason. The State Department people think fur crazy, she says. But the Somali-ans were so happy to see ordinary Americans come to help. "And the Somalian government is corruption. "This was never conceived as a one shot thing. There's already involve-banet with the Jewish community, the Islanic community and the student community. that, in her still weakened state, came border war. "You can't build a nation if all the children die." MS PANNE spent nine days in Somalia. For her own family, they were anious, paintl days of waiting. "I knew my sons were frightened be-cause they asked my mother and my fiance. Will my mother come back?" "And when I phoned my mom from Rome on the return trip. I heard the audible sigh of relief in her voice when she realized it was me," she says. After months of overwork and the tedious journey to Somalia, Ms. Payne wound up dehydrated and exhausted. She required hospitalization and after

"We could see the effects of malnu-trition on the kids. What keeps me going is — the children still laughed, still smiled and still had hope. "That shows the human spirit."

BRRAEARY

SAL-F

with extraged individual on COALS, STROLLERS

AND JACKETS

"Brotherhood is g rights and respect selves."

"urs

The five panelists are Beverly Payne, newscaster; Bob Talbert, co-lumnist, Sister Carol Rithter of the Mercy College Learning Resource Cen-ter, Paul M. Savage, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; and state Sen. Doug Ross. Haus and respect in the selves." The Department of Michigan Jewish War Veterans and its Ladies Auxiliary believe that brotherhood is a 365-day-a-year obligation that brings its own rewards. Yet once a year they pause during February, observed as Brotherhood Month, to focus on the good men do to others. Each will receive a JWV award for Each will receive a JWV award for their humane efforts. "Brotherhood Night is one of the highlights of JWV programming be-cause it represents one of the principal reasons for the organization of our group in 1896, said Greenberg. Chairmen for the event are past Commanders Jack Berman and Jack Schwartz. Admission is free and the public may attend. Refreshments will be served. Month, to focus on the grown has a se-others. This year's annual JWV Brotherhood Night will take plade at 8 pm. Thurs-day, Feb. 19 at the JWV Memorial Home, 19890 12 Mile in Southfield According to Department Command-er William Greenberg, a five-speaker panel will be assembled to discuss brotherhood and to entertain questions.

High school juniors and seniors are invited to visit the college on that day, attend a class and a special chapel, lunch with the students and faculty. Reservations are requested by call-ing Dick Ellis at the college, 553-7200.

Collegiate preview

set Feb. 20 at

Tyndale

for artists and photographers. The Gathering Place is located in-side Mercy Center on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt Road. Guests are en-ter from Gate 4, on 11 Mile Road.

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR

.

flags cased and their drums beating a British or German march. The tune chosen by the British was "The World Turned Upside Down," a slow, mourn-ful sound to which the troops marched to surrender their arms. It was an ap-propriate tune to end a war that had-been more than 6½ years long.

An appropriate time February is American History Month. The battle of Vorktown was the decisive battle of the American Revo-lution. It resulted in the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to General George Washington. One article of capitulation required that the British troops march out of their fortifications with their

LINENS •

The

MID WINTER DOLL SALE OVERSTOCKS

(Between Miracle Mile and Pontiac Mall) Square Lake Road & Orchard Lake Road

334-4593

HOURS: Mon.-Fri.: 9-9; Sat.: 9-6; Sun.: 11-5

house of bedrooms

