

INSIDE ANGLES

SPECTACULAR SKATERS and gymnasts, the best in their respective fields, are coming to Detroit's Joe Louis Arena next month and Farmington Hills-based Adults for Kids is offering special rates for both events.

Adults for Kids, with support from Contemporary Awards in Farmington, has $4.50 and $5.00 tickets for the 1981 Ice Capades starring Tai Babilonia and Randy Gardner March 8-9. Tickets normally sell for $7 and $8. Deadline for orders is Friday, Feb. 27.

Nadia '81, starring the Romanian wonder of the Olympics who clinched 10 medals, Nadia Comaneci, and Kurt Thomas is coming to town for one show only March 15.

The best seats priced at $10 and $9 will be sold at $7.50 and $6.50 thanks to Adults for Kids the Farmington Gymnastics Center and American Exercise and Equipment Company in Southfield. Deadline for orders is March 6.

DOWNHILL RACERS aren't being neglected by the Parks and Recreation Department this year.

The package price is $80 a person (double occupancy) and $72 a person (four to a room). Included is two nights lodging at Schuss Mt. Ski Resort, two buffet breakfasts and one buffet dinner, two all-area lift tickets, evening entertainment and round trip transportation.

ALMOST 200 YEARS ago, in October, 1781, the battle of Yorktown was fought in Virginia. The battle led to the surrender of the British under Lord Cornwallis.

That summer, Lafayette was in Virginia keeping track of Cornwallis' moves. Washington sent the message: 'I shall shortly have occasion to communicate matters of very great importance to you.' This message sparked the beginning of assembling troops in Virginia that would eventually defeat Cornwallis and bring about his surrender.

And that's the way it was...The Daughters of the American Revolution invite you to share the country's heritage during February, which is American History Month.

Take a historian to lunch.

JAMES WIBBY of Farmington was the grand prize winner at the Farmington Community Center's Millionaire's Party Feb. 7.

Wibby, who is president of Metro Bank, won two nights and three days in Las Vegas.

S. Benglian of Farmington Hills was second prize winner ($100) and C. Mancina of Detroit, the only winner present at the drawing, walked away with $50.

DIAL FOR DISCOUNTS is now in service. By calling 547-2700, you can get answers to questions on shopping in general, discount stores in particular.

Dialing for discounts joins a growing list of information available at your fingertips: weather conditions, time, jokes, horoscopes, dial a sale, prayer, fairytales, the KPOL-am surfline from Waikiki, and of course, the volcano and eruption reports from Hilo, Hawaii.
