

Top skiers honored

Stanisavljevic conquered Schuss Mountain in Manselona (title of the state meet) with a first-place clocking of 62.654 in the slalom race to highlight her season.

Kingswood teammate Ann Krsul, a familiar name in skiing competition, also earns first-team accolades. A second-team all-area selection last season, Krsul top performance was winning the slalom regional crown at Pine Knob. She also placed second in the giant slalom that day, beating Stanisavljevic in both races.

Lahser and Andover place two girls each on this honor squad, as well.

Lahser's top skier is Dana Chladek, whose third-place finish in the slalom race at the state meet earns a first-team spot for the second straight year.

Chladek's teammate, Becky Johnson, a consistent skier, is another two-time all-area selection. She finished in the top 10 in both the slalom and giant slalom races at the divisional and regional.

Lindley Ziegler and Lisa Dove, another two-time first-teamer, represents Andover on the squad.

Dove placed second in the slalom and third in the giant slalom at divisional competition to highlight her season.

Walled Lake Central's Kerry Weber rounds out the seven-member girls' squad.

Catholic Central stopped by Cooley

By DOUG FUNKE

All season long, Detroit Catholic Central's basketball attack has revolved around Greg Wendt.

The 6-8 senior forward with a deft left-handed shot let in a great individual performance Friday. Wendt hit better than 50 percent of his shots from the field and finished with 37 points. He also grabbed 13 rebounds.

But it was all for naught, as the Shamrocks were defeated by Detroit Cooley, 64-57 in the Franklin Regional final of the Class A state tournament.

Cooley, smaller than the Shamrocks, but with good speed and good jumping ability, never trailed during the game.

The Cardinals popped in the first three field goals of the contest and it wasn't until nearly three minutes had been played that CC scored its initial points. Wendt—who else?—did the honors with a layup.

Cooley utilized a man-to-man defense through much of the game, while the Shamrocks used a zone defense.

The Cardinals led 15-10 at the end of the opening quarter and by as many as 14 with just under three minutes remaining in the half.

Wendt and Joe Lorisada each connected on a pair of field goals to pull the Shamrocks within six points, 28-22, but Cooley reeled off two baskets before the intermission to build its lead back to 10, 33-23.

Cooley scored most of its points during the first half from inside of CC's zone. The Cardinals also seemed to have a better transition game from defense to offense and back and also seemed to control the boards.

Coach Bernie Holowicki must have given his charges some good advice during the break, because the Shamrocks came out during the second half and played much more aggressively.

Wendt notched 14 of his points during the third quarter and Dave Rodriguez contributed four, but CC was able to chip away only one point from its deficit.

Cooley converted seven of eight foul shots during the third quarter and entered the final eight minutes with a 50-41 advantage.

Wendt hit three shots in succession and Rodriguez made a basket to pull the Shamrocks within five points, 54-49, 2:15 into the fourth quarter.

A tip-in by Lorisada half a minute later brought CC within three, 54-51.

That's as close as the Shamrocks would come the rest of the game. A couple of costly turnovers near the end and three timely baskets by Cooley's Eddie Gill kept the Cardinals in front.

Rice triumphs

Rimmer, the only returning starter on this year's Eagle squad, finished with a game-high 26 points. He followed Dingsen scoring spree with eight straight points, pulling Ferndale back within six (38-32) after the third quarter.

And he hit Ferndale's first two hoops of the final period, as well, pulling his squad within four (40-36).

But when things got tight, Rice's overall strength and height advantage always prevailed. The Warriors were demons on the boards, outbounding the losers, 33-17. Shasky and Dingsen pulled down nine each.

Jokisch led the Rice scoring attack with 16 points — six from the foul line. Shasky pumped in 14 to complement Dingsen's effort.
