

W. Bloomfield marathon set

West Bloomfield Parks and Recreation and Vic Tanny International will co-sponsor the fifth annual West Bloomfield Marathon April 12.

The marathon has been changed this year to a 13.1-mile run in order "to offer the runner a better event," according to race coordinator Chuck Proulx of the parks department.

Last year, when the run was moved from Belle Isle in Detroit to West Bloomfield, many dirt roads had to be included in the course. But by using local subdivision streets in West Bloomfield this year, 90 percent of the route will be on paved roads, including along wooded areas, a golf course and lakes.

The rolling terrain promises to add a new dimension to the half marathon this year and "runners should be well trained" to run the course, Proulx says.

Skyline keeps top cage spot

Skyline Diamonds pushed its recreation basketball record to 7-0 with a recent 67-55 victory over Dunleavy's Pub & Grub in the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department Men's League.

Skyline, which leads to eight-team loop, got 23 points from Mike Wilson and 13 more from Tom Bird. Pub & Grub, the second-place team with a 6-1 record, was led by Chuck Edwards (15 points), Don Blouin (8) and Al Byrd (6).

Steak & Ale, in third place with a 5-2 record, used 23 points by Dave Carpenter and 10 by Curtis Peel to whip Honey Tree, 53-44. Gary McKee and Jim McKee led Honey Tree (3-4) with 15 and 13 points, respectively.

Systems Unlimited (4-3) downed Hewlett Packard, 54-34, thanks to 24 points from Gary Spade and 14 from Willie Town-

It's all over! Rice falls to Flint crew

"We were able to sag off on (Paul) Jokisch and the big guy (John Shasky) wouldn't shoot, so that helped."

Jokisch, Rice's top offensive threat, led the Warriors with 15 points, hitting seven of 13 field goals. But Shasky, a 6-10 junior center who scored 12 points, shot only five times all game — and hit each attempt.

DAVE YAREMA, known by many as Rice's All-State quarterback on the state championship football team last fall, hasn't seen much action on the basketball court this year. He played in this game, however, and responded with 11 points coming off the bench.
