Co-op Nursery Seeking Kids

FARMINGTON
The Farmington Cooperative Nursery is now accepting applications from prospective members. Openings now exist in the group of three and four-year-olds and applications are being taken for the 1970-71 school year.
The group meets Mondays and Thursdays in the North Farmington Baptist Church at 32500 13 Mile Rd. in Farmington. Mrs. Eleanor Bartlett and Mrs. Cathy Borbi direct the children with the assistance of the children's mothers.

Parents of pre-school children desiring further information about membership in the nursery may contact Mrs. Shirley Koretz at 851-1637, Mrs. Susan Dowd at 477-9630 or the nursery at 826-5967.

HELP POLICE—Dr. Al Scorchilli presents a check from the North Farmington Kiwanis Club to Police Chief Irving Yokes for a new communications system for the Farmington Township Police Department. Chief Yokes says: "This matter station with five substations linked to various departments within the headquarters will save many man-hours." The Kiwanians made the donation from money derived from pancake suppers, peanut sales, the Farmington Founders Festival, hot dog sales and other activities. From left: William Kelly, Chief Yokes, Dr. Scorchilli and Mel Todd, club president.

After a leave at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Duell Sr., of Detroit, and a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther E. Duell of Orchard Lake Rd.

Club Hosts AFS-YFU Students

Farmington High School Exchange Club will host 40 foreign exchange students during its annual Brotherhood Weekend, Feb. 26-28. Beginning Thursday night the students, under the auspices of the American Field Service and Youth for Understanding groups, will be guests in Farmington High area homes.

Friday morning the exchange students will attend an assembly at Farmington High and then spend the rest of the day classes to speak on their countries: Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Switzerland, Italy, France, Japan, Germany, Brazil, Colombia, Uruguay, Argentina and the Philippines.

A party has been planned in their honor for Friday evening.

Exchange Club president, Nan Cummings, and vice-president, Reta Dodd, along with club sponsor Miss Virginia Carley, are in charge of arrangements.
