Classic, slated for May 30-31, has a sightly different twist.

In one game, a group of 12 Michigan high school seniors will take on the Quebec Provincial Junior Men's Feam from Canada. A preliminary game will feature 24 of the top players from across the state.
For the first time since the Classic began, open tryouts will be held to help determine the Michigan any reliminary team of the many first the state of the present of the teams must be currently enrolled in the 12th grade and have made to the properties of the teams must be currently enrolled in the 12th grade and have participated in variety bastebal for their respective high schools during the 196-81 season.
