This apartment unit in the Mulwood complex was damaged by fire after it was struck by lightning.

Lightning ignites fire

Lightning struck an apartment building in Farmington Hills early Saturday, causing a fire which destroyed two units. No one was injured.

The blaze at Mulwood Apartments caused an estimated $200,000 in damages.

A fire official said lightning struck a television antennae just after 1 a.m. Saturday and traveled down to the TV set in the apartment at 36032 Verdant Ct.

The fire was contained mostly in the second floor unit, but the first floor dwelling suffered extensive water damage.

Nineteen firefighters were on the scene until 2:54 a.m.
