Lathrup girls sweep Harrison

The Southfield-Lathrup girls' softball team halted any hopes Farmington Harrison might have entertained about a victorious season opener.

The Chargers pounded Harrison in both ends of a Saturday doubleheader at Lathrup, 24-2 and 19-6. The mercy rule was invoked in each contest.

Marianne Cinat and Lori Curcio supplied hot bats for the Chargers. Cinat, a sophomore third baseman, totaled 5-for-6 in both games, racking up a double, a pair of triples and a home run.

She scored five runs and four RBIs. Junior shortstop Curcio also had an excellent day at the plate. She went 4-for-5, including a double and a triple, and scored four runs and four RBIs.
