

Suspect's history raises questions

Community Living Centers, the non-profit corporation Mrs. Wagner directs, received start-up funds from MORC to remodel a convent in Birmingham before the facility was licensed, she said. The corporation is paying off the loan in 10 monthly installments.

MRS. WAGNER said the corporation receives $410.60 per month from the state per resident to feed residents, provide transportation, pay staff salaries and pay utilities and rent on the buildings. If it wasn't for contributions by churches and private individuals, she said, her homes wouldn't be self-sufficient.

She said she hopes Ricks' arrest won't hurt chances for future group homes for the retarded.

"It looks bad," she said. "I got a funny feeling when I saw that story in the paper (about Ricks' arrest)."

Mrs. Wagner said it would be wrong to ignore the thorough documentation of financial expenses required of group-home administrators by the MORC.

The $95,000 house in the Franklin Estates subdivision was gutted by fire Nov. 3. Five retarded adults were scheduled to live there.

Albion recital is presented

Farmington soprano, Catherine Bennett, will present her senior recital at Albion College on May 2. The program is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. in the chapel and will include works of Bach, Verdi, Rachmaninoff and Villa-Lobos. The recital is in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Bachelor of arts degree in vocal performance which will be conferred in May.

Miss Bennett was an apprentice of the Lyric Opera of Chicago in 1980. She was a two-time winner of the concerto auditions and was the recipient of a scholarship to the Aspen Music Festival. She recently captured second place in the Senior Women's Division of the National Association of Teachers of Singing Competition.

Miss Bennett has accepted an appointment to the graduate staff of the University of Akron Music School for 1981-83. In addition to her teaching duties and performance schedule, she will complete her master's degree at the university.

She is a 1977 graduate of Farmington High School. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Bennett of Robinwood Lane.
