

Art student's works displayed at Mercy

Kathy Smith of Farmington Hills, a senior art student at Mercy College of Detroit, will display her work at the 25th Annual Student Art Exhibit, May 6 through 10 in the Mercy Conference Center.

In celebration of the silver anniversary, a continuous slide show, featuring outstanding works of the past quarter century, will be presented. These include jewelry, ceramics, bronzecasting, weaving, batik, figure sculpture, paintings, two and three dimensional design.

An opening reception will be held on Wednesday, May 6 at 6 p.m. in the Houghton Room of the Student Conference Center.

The exhibit will be open to the public. Hours are Thursday through Sunday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; with evening hours on Thursday and Friday, 6-8 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Mercy College is located at Southfield and West Outer Drive, south of Seven Mile Road. For information, call 592-6080.

Caring...

There's something special about the kind of assistance families receive from the staff at McCabe's. It's called "caring"—the reflection of a sincere desire on our part to help during some of life's most trying moments.

The 87 years that we've been serving Detroit-area families have taught us much about what is of lasting value. We've learned that of all human relationships, perhaps the most precious is the act of one person caring for another.

that's why we're here. Whenever a problem arises where you believe McCabe's can be of help, please feel free to call us. Anytime. That's why we're here... because we care.
