

Gail Ann Schellenberger, daughter of Frederick and Ruth Schellenberger of Donald Street, Livonia, became the bride of Mark Gordon Masalin of Chester Court, Farmington Hills, in a ceremony in Faith Lutheran Church of Livonia.

The bridegroom's parents are Osmo and Margie Masalin of Brady Street, Redford. The Rev. Pastor Jaster officiated.

For the ceremony and reception at Bonnie Brook Country Club the bride wore a Jena original gown with alencon lace bodice, Queen Anne neckline and cathedral train. Her full-length veil also was trimmed in alencon lace, and she carried white roses with baby's breath and lilies of the valley.

Four attendants wore burgundy chiffon dresses and carried white and red roses and baby's breath. Robert Kuhn was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Lynda Flamme, Marcia Boller and Pam Schellenberger.

David Ranilovick was best man and the ushers were Michael Masalin, Darrell Kanowski, Karl Schellenberger and Leonard Kosloski.

The couple went to the Bahamas for their honeymoon and are making their home in Farmington Hills.

Both are business administration students at Schoolcraft College.

tended by Patricia Meredith and Shirl Simpson.

The bride holds a master's degree in management from Central Michigan University and is employed with Ford Motor Co. at Milan Plastics Plant. The groom, a summa cum laude graduate from University of Detroit, is employed as a Ford Division programming coordinator in Renaissance Center.

The couple will honeymoon on board ship to the western Caribbean Sea, and make their home in Farmington.

Daul-Schippers

Sandra Schippers and John James Daul were married May 2 in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Schippers of Mount Clemens. The couple will exchange vows again during a double wedding ceremony in Austin, Texas, on May 16, when the bride's sister, Helen, is wed to Wiley Gilmore.

Macomb County Probate Court Judge Lawrence Zatkoff officiated at the ceremony when the bride was at-

Debra Gregory named Kalamazoo ambassador

Debra Ann Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gregory of Farmington Hills, has been given the title of Ambassador of Kalamazoo. She will represent the city for six weeks this summer during a trip to Europe planned in conjunction with Expo-81 in International Living Program.

Eleven civic organizations in Kalamazoo are sponsoring Miss Gregory's trip. The purpose of the visit is to foster the exchange of friendship and culture between the countries she visits and Kalamazoo.

On her return, she will speak about her experiences before each of the sponsoring groups.

Miss Gregory graduated from Farmington High School in 1978 and is now a student at Western Michigan University where she is a member of the Honors College and affiliated with Chi Omega.

She is a member of the varsity swim team, pre-law society, Mortar Board and has served two internships; one in bio-chemistry and one in law.

She was recently honored for her record of scholastic achievement by being named the Presidential Scholar in Natural Science at the school.

She will graduate from Western in June and plans to attend law school in the fall.
