Walk for mankind slated

Attention, Dr. Scholl: On Saturday, May 16, and Saturday, June 6, more than 15,000 metro Detroiters will participate in the annual Walk for Mankind.

Walkers will take a 30-kilometer stroll in one of 15 area communities to assist the patients of Project Concern, an international, non-profit health care and training organization which serves impoverished people in the United States and other countries.

Walks will be held on May 16 in Canton, Dearborn, Flat Rock, Pinckney, Riverview, Taylor, Trenton, Troy, Waterford, Westland, Woodhaven, Wyandotte and Ypsilanti. Livonia and Northville Walks will be held on June 6. Each walk is sponsored by the local Jaycee and Jaycette chapters.

According to Joyce Julius, Project Concern regional director, the majority of the funds raised will go to support Project Concern's clinics and training programs. Approximately 20 percent of the funds will be returned to local projects or organizations.
