Harrison girls nip Farmington in soccer battle

Farmington Harrison's senior goalie Barb Blumhardt stopped 11 shots to register a 1-0 shutout over Farmington High in girls' soccer action Monday.

Sophomore midfielder Sue Ferguson scored the game's only goal on a pass from Dede Churchill.

The Hawks are 2-6-1 overall.

WEST BLOOMFIELD 4 SOUTHFIELD 0

Sue Vodka scored three goals to lead West Bloomfield to a 4-0 blanking of Southfield High in girls' soccer action Monday night.

Laker goalie Jenni Erk registered the shutout. Gabe Stivaletta scored the goal for the winners.

The Lakers, 3-1 overall, travel to Birmingham Groves Monday night.

LAHSER 2 GROVES 1

Bloomfield Hills Lahser nipped Birmingham Groves, 2-1, in a Northwest Suburban Soccer League game Monday night.

The Knights, 3-0 overall, got goals from Julie Gnuw and Caroline Trout for the victory. Groves goal came when Lahser deflected the ball into its own net.

It was Groves (2-1) first setback this season.

In action last week, Groves blanked archrival Birmingham Seaholm, 4-0.

Goalie Cheryl Rysrak had to make only four saves to register her second shutout of the season.

Area gymnast stars in meet

Darrell Yee, a 1977 graduate of Farmington Harrison High School, ended his collegiate gymnastics career at the University of Michigan by winning his third-straight Big Ten still rings championship.

Yee, the captain of the Wolverines squad this season, also made his second-straight trip to the NCAA nationals in Lincoln, Neb., where he finished 20th on the rings.

He qualified for the national championships by having a 9.45 average, the highest in the Midwest Region.

Yee, who won the high school state championship on rings and all-around while at Harrison, plans to graduate from Michigan with a degree in civil engineering.

"After I graduate, I hope to keep competing in some open meets," he said. "I'd like to coach at a local high school or at Michigan if they let me."
