

Rabbi Rosenbaum honored May 14

Temple Emanu-El is sponsoring a series of events May 14-18 in honor of retiring Rabbi and Mrs. Milton Rosenbaum. In July, Rosenbaum will become Rabbi Emeritus. He has been the spiritual leader of Temple Emanu-El since 1958.

The temple, located in Oak Park, serves a congregation which includes residents in Southfield, Birmingham and West Bloomfield.

Festivities honoring the Rosenbaums begin May 14 with a testimonial dinner dance at Tam O'Shanter Country Club. May 15 they again will be honored at the Sabbath Eve Service. The sermon will be delivered by the Rosenbaums' son, Dr. Jonathan Rosenbaum, assistant professor in the department of religion and philosophy at the University of Nebraska. He will discuss "What Should a Rabbi Be?"

Dr. Rosenbaum will be joined by his brothers, Aaron Rosenbaum, a consultant, speaker and writer in Washington D.C., and Daniel Rosenbaum, a social worker in Detroit.

A highlight of the service will be the dedication in the Rosenbaums' honor of a memorial Torah scroll, written in 1850 and salvaged from a congregation in Lipnik, Czechoslovakia.

Past presidents of the temple taking part in the service include: Theodore Birnkrant, Milton Luccow, Walter Stark, Conrad Goode, Lillian Maltzer, Morton

Wolin, Joan Rosen, Nathan Feldman, Stuart Falk and Lyle Parr, the incumbent president. The service of the Sisterhood will sponsor an Oheg Shabbat.

On May 18, Thelma Rosenbaum will be honored for her years of service by the Sisterhood at its installation luncheon with a special program in her honor.

Debutantes will bow at May 9 presentation

Twenty-five debutantes will be introduced at the Sixth Annual Presentation Ball at the Detroit Plaza Hotel on May 9.

Ceremonies will include cocktails, dinner and a procession of fathers escorting their daughters down the ballroom runway of the Renaissance Ballroom.

Samir Chamma, Consul General of Lebanon, and James Tamer are Honorary Chairmen of the event being sponsored by the United Christian Lebanese Association.

Proceeds will go to the UCLA scholarship fund.

Josephine Saigh and Kathleen Tamer are co-chairmen of the event. Betty Paris of Lathrup Village and Helen Laff are heading the debutant and escort committee.

Music will be provided by Jerry Ross and orchestra. Dinner reservations are necessary and may be made by calling Jo Ann Erb at 773-5648 or Mary Coury at 778-4352. Tickets are $35 per person and are partially tax deductible.
