

Harrison Boosters name its scholarship winners

Obitist Kris Williams and flutist Sandy Oswald each won $300 to further their musical education in the scholarship competition sponsored by Harrison High School Band and Orchestra Boosters.

Kris won in the ninth and tenth grade competition, and was followed by semi-finalists Julie Fish, Don Jean and Kim Cole.

Sandy led the eleventh and twelfth graders, followed by Sue McDonough, David Lendal and Susan Notestine.

Semifinalists were each awarded $100.

A formal presentation will be made to the teens during the boosters' Appreciation Banquet, set for the evening of May 11.

MSU in top 10

Michigan State University consistently ranks within the top 10 universities in the number of doctoral degrees awarded.

Group collects information about Orchestra Hall history

Items relating to Orchestra Hall in Detroit are being collected by the provisional class of the Junior League of Detroit. The group is seeking to establish an archives for the historic building.

Items needed include old newspaper clippings, old programs, artifacts and any information pertaining to the history, personnel, performers and restoration of Orchestra Hall, or, as it was known for a time, the Paradise Theater.

Anyone who has material to contribute should contact Renee van Dewater, 833-3702 or send the material to her at Orchestra Hall, 3711 Woodward, Detroit 48201.

Butler-Marttila

Rose Butler of Farmington Hills and Les Butler of Colorado announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Marie, to Timothy Scott Marttila, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Courtney Marttila of Farmington Hills.

The bride-to-be and her fiancé are both graduates of North Farmington High School.

A July wedding is planned in Franklin Community Church.

Schneemann- Wingenter

George and Doris Schneemann of San Jose Street, Redford, announce the engagement of their daughter Yvonne Kay, of Oakland Street, Farmington, to Gerald Alan Wingenter of Violet Street, Farmington, son of Harry and Stella Wingenter of Milford.

The bride-elect is a 1971 graduate of Thurston High School and is employed by Borman's Inc. Her fiancé graduated in 1971 from Farmington High School and is operations manager of Bon Ton Shoppes Inc.

Their wedding will take place Sept. 26 in Brightmoor Tabernacle, Redford.

Booklet tells how to conserve energy

A new publication called Conservation Dollars has been prepared to help Michigan residents who want to finance energy-saving home improvements.

The energy conservation brochure, published by the Energy Clearinghouse, lists programs offering loans or grants for such energy-saving home improvements as adding insulation or storm windows or doors.

More than 15 programs are described in Conservation Dollars, including information about the programs offered and how to apply for assistance.

Individuals can receive a single copy of Conservation Dollars without charge by calling the toll-free Energy Hotline, 1-800-292-4704, or by writing the Energy Clearinghouse, P.O. Box 30228, Lansing 48909.
