Holding a garage sale is a fun way to do a little business on your own... but it takes a bit of planning.

Like you'll want to decide what to sell and how much to charge for each item... and then you'll need price tags so other people will know what you're charging.

And you'll have to be able to make change for all your customers... so that means you should have loads of one dollar bills and an assortment of coins.

When you'll want to advertise your sale to that crowd. You can do it with a sign or your neighborhood... but you'll want a crowd than that... so it's best to advertise which tells the time and place of your sale to a host of potential buyers.
