

Local clergymen shocked by shooting of John Paul II in Rome

Father Ruskowski met the pope during his 1976 visit to Orchard Lake Schools. Later, Father Ruskowski spent time with the pope in Krakow, Poland and in Rome.

The vice chancellor pointed to recent bombings in Italy as well as upheavals in Ireland as just two examples of worldwide violence. "We're peaceful people looking for peace," he said.

"We've got to get it (peace) out of the conference rooms and academic halls."

POPE JOHN PAUL, then Cardinal Karol Wojtyla, first visited the Orchard Lake Schools in 1969. In 1976, he and 19 Polish bishops returned for a two-day Polonia Conference.

The Orchard Lake Schools — St. Cyril & Methodius Seminary, St. Mary's College and St. Mary's Preparatory — are recognized as a leading center of Polish culture and heritage.

During his last visit, Pope John Paul, the first Polish pope in the history of the Catholic Church, called the campus "the most beautiful seminary in the world," according to the Rev. Walter Ziemia.

Father Ziemia accompanied the then-cardinal on visits across the United States in 1976. Many other priests and members of the OLSM community know or have met the pope either during his visits to the campus or in Europe.

OTHER CLERGYMEN also expressed their concern Wednesday.

Rabbi Ernst Conrad of Temple Kol Ami attributed the assassination attempt to a "sense of anarchy that seems to be all pervasive and particularly endemic to Western culture."

"My prayers are with all the Catholic people," Rabbi Conrad said. "I pray for his full and complete recovery."

The Rev. Jack Freed of Holy Spirit Lutheran said violence has always been part of the world scene.

"Each generation has had its share. There has been no perfect generation. The thing I look at is it is done by an individual or small group of individuals," he said. "Today, with the accessibility of the pope, those with evil in mind have more opportunity."

Freed expressed empathy with leaders and congregants of Catholic churches in the area. "In our clergy association we have a very close association with each other," he said. "I feel very deep concern. These are my friends. The pope is their leader."

Detroit Archbishop Cardinal John Dearden, leader of Roman Catholics in the metropolitan area, expressed grief over the assassination attempt.

"I am deeply saddened by this tragic event. I ask the people of the archdiocese to join me in prayer for our holy father's healing and recovery."

The cardinal added, "Let us also pray for an end to the violence of which this is one more painful example."
