FARMINGTON 6 LATHRUP 1

Scott Zang pitched a six-hitter and struck out three on Saturday to pace Farmington's 6-1 win over non-league Southfield-Lathrup.

Joe Hamilton went 2-for-4 and drove in a run for Farmington, and teammate Ron McKinnon had two hits in three trips and scored two runs. Losing pitcher Scott Kline also went the distance, with a seven-hitter. John Mutiah had two hits for Lathrup.

ROSEVILLE BAPTIST 6 NORTHWEST 1

Walt Dumortier limited Farmington Lutheran High Northwest to three harmless singles last week as Roseville Baptist nailed the Crusaders with 6-1 Class D predistrict loss. Lutheran Northwest is 6-6.

The Baptist pitcher fanned 14 and walked two. Losing pitcher Rich Hubble went the distance, allowed nine hits, walked three and struck out three. Hubble, Brooks Rousseaux and Dave Austin each had a hit for the losers.

Mario Serra scored Northwest's run in the fifth inning.

24-hour relay run set

If you happen to drive by West Bloomfield High School's track during the middle of the night May 30, don't be surprised if you see 25 joggers.

At 8:30 a.m. that day, a gun will go off, signaling the beginning of a unique sporting event.

For 24 hours, 250 people — 25 at a time — will take turns running four laps. One by one, members of 10-person teams will run their miles as fast as they can until 8:30 a.m. May 31.

There will be many weary legs and bleary eyes as teams rack up as many miles as possible.

"The 24-hour team relay is a real test of mental toughness as well as physical stamina," said Charlie Blanchard, a sponsor of the second-annual event and owner of Total Runner in Southfield.

The event has rewards not attainable in a marathon. Instead of an individual battle against fatigue and the clock, it is a team effort spurred by camaraderie, closeness and team spirit.

Last year, 18 teams competed in the event, co-sponsored by Blanchard and the West Bloomfield Community Education Department.

A CARNIVAL-LIKE atmosphere ensued with the runners' motley assortment of tents, campers and other shelters. Temperatures plunged from 85 degrees during the day to the 40s at night, and a tornado that touched down three miles away delivered driving winds and unrelenting rain.

"We're hoping for a break from Mother Nature this year," Blanchard said. "But even with that awful weather, I think everyone would rate last year's race as an unqualified success and this year's event will be even bigger and better."

The defending champion Western Michigan Broncos set a new state 24-hour relay record completing 270 miles, 909 yards in last year's event. Bronco runners averaged slightly over five minutes per mile.

The Motor City Masters, a men's over-40 team, logged more than 240 miles, an average pace of six minutes flat. Plenty of joggers with more heart and courage than speed also entered, including Marjean Trudgeon, a Detroit mother of six, who stuck it out right to the end.

"THIS YEAR WE will have some deadly-serious teams and a mixed team of five men and five women," said Blanchard.
