JUNIOR GROUP OF LEAGUE-GOODWILL has elected Farmington Hills resident Mary Jane Watkins as second vice president of the metropolitan organization. She has served on a number of the group's committees and last year was co-chairman for its pre-Christmas antique show, major fund-raiser for the organization.

Two Farmington Hills residents were among 16 new members welcomed into the group: Mrs. Robert Hawthorne and Mrs. John Wendt. The junior group's most recent purchase for the handicapped at its Trumbull Avenue facility will enable the workers to produce Audit Energy Retro Kits.

Area Chapter, hosts its parent discussion group tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Farmington Hills Community Library, 32737 12 Mile Road.

The informal gathering is open to all concerned parents of children with learning disabilities.

SECTION 36 HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION meets at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Room 203, Botsford Professional Building, adjacent to Botsford Hospital on Grand River west of Eight Mile Road.

A representative of Farmington Salvation Army will talk about the church's day camp program.

Members meet to solve a common problem of compulsive overeating. Inquiries will be taken by calling 425-8263 during the day or 532-6027 evenings.

OAKLAND SINGLES host a party beginning at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, May 31, in Angles Lounge, 30869 Orchard Lake Road, south of 14 Mile Road.

The event is open to singles between the ages of 23-39 living in the north and west suburbs of Detroit.

Membership inquiries are taken by calling Mrs. Abe Bohn, 435-0910.

MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES, (MACLD), Farmington

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS is forming a new chapter for residents in Redford, Livonia and Farmington.

Registration opens at 4 area day camps

The Michigan Metro Girl Scout Council has opened registration in four area day camps for 6-17-year-old girls, scouts or non-scouts.

The camp programs provide opportunities for girls to learn outdoor skills, arts and crafts, new games and songs, while at the same time making new friends.

Under the supervision of skilled, trained adult volunteers, the campers will also become familiar with the world of nature, drama and outdoor cooking.

Fee for each camp is $20 per week. The Detroit Zoo Day Camp runs for five days, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. June 22-26 and emphasizes zoo animals and their environment.

The program for the other three camps emphasize outdoor skills and nature activities.

Chippewa Day Camp is an eight-day program in Beyerly Hills' Village Park. The 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. sessions run July 6-16, excluding the weekend.

Arapaho Day Camp, on the grounds at 27629 Haggerty Road in Farmington, is in session July 20-23 and July 27-30.

Cherokee Day Camp is in session Aug. 3-6 and 10-13 in Quickstad Park, Royal Oak.

Day camp application forms will be sent on request by calling Michigan Metro Girl Scouts, 964-4475.
