

Farmington pauses to honor those who sacrificed

The Marines from the 1st Battalion, 24th unit, marched off with the best marching unit award.

Deanna Churchill was named Miss Americanism by VFW post 2269.

The marching band from Harrison High School took the most outstanding band award.

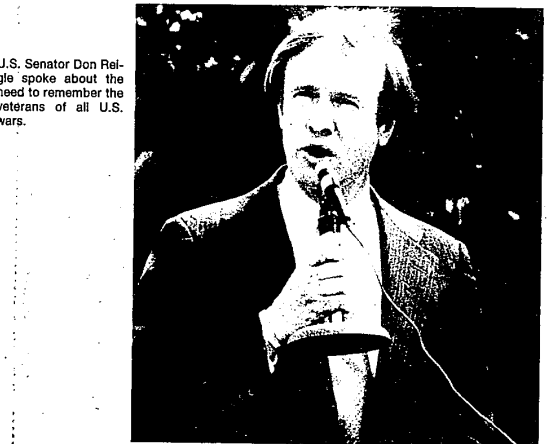

Farmington area residents carried through on a small town tradition this week as they celebrated Memorial Day with a parade.

Awards were given to Harrison High School marching band for outstanding band; 1st Battalion, 24th Marines for best marching unit; Larkshire Girl Scouts for best marching unit — youth; and Plymouth Fife and Drum Corp for best historical band.

Awards were also presented to Cub Scout Pack 162 for best unit; Sons of the American Legion for best float; Clarenceville High School marching band for best visiting band; and Boy Scout Pack 168 for best youth group.

The final string of awards were given to Brownie Troop 3741 for best youth group — girls; Chris Gibbons for most outstanding vehicle (a go-cart); Conrad Stelter for outstanding auto; Farmington Hills hook and ladder from the Farmington Hills Fire Department for outstanding public vehicle; and the Oakland County crime lab truck with McGruff, the crime dog, for outstanding public vehicle.

Staff photos by Randy Borst

U.S. Senator Don Riegle spoke about the need to remember the veterans of all U.S. wars.

CREATE A PARTY IN CONFETTI-DOTTED BLACK SILK by Soo Yung Lee for SYL Ltd. With little-girl frills of ruffles and satin ribbons...and big-girl glamour of embossed silk and off-the-shoulder allure. For a big evening aboard a cruise ship or a little one on the Terrace. 4' to 10, $210. The Woodward Shops, Northland, Oakland, Twelve Oaks.

THE
WOODWARD
SHOPS
hudson's

Jim Ross, a senior from the North Farmington high school marching band, performed a trumpet solo for the judges and spectators at this year's parade.