

Symphony meets at Botsford Inn

Roger and Martha Welton, flutist and harpsichordist, will be soloists at the Oakway Symphony's annual meeting at 8 p.m. Friday.

The annual meeting of the Oakway Symphony will be held at 8 p.m. June 5 at the Coach House of Botsford Inn, Grand River north of Eight Mile Road, Farmington Hills.

Roger Welton, flutist with Oakway, and Martha Welton, harpsichordist, will provide musical entertainment during the evening. Ms. Welton will play "Les Barrières Mystérieuses" for harpsichord by Couperin.

Together they will perform the Sonata in F Major for flute and harpsichord by Jean Baptiste Loeillet. The harpsichord which will be used was made by Roger Welton in 1978. It is a copy of the one in London made by Pascal Haskins in 1760.

It is eight feet in length, with a double manual, five registrations, three sets of strings of 18 sizes. This results in an unusual variety of sounds and colors.

AFTER A SHORT business meeting, at which new board members are elected, Francisco Di Elasi, conductor, will announce the dates and soloists for the 1981-82 season. He also will speak about openings and auditions in the orchestra for the coming season.

Persons who wish to volunteer their services are being invited to attend the meeting to learn more about the orchestra and give Oakway their opinions and suggestions.

Oakway, now in its ninth season, performs more concerts than any other community orchestra in the metropolitan area. This includes six subscription concerts, a cabaret and numerous appearances with the full orchestra, such as appearances at Tel-Twelve and Twelve Oaks malls.

Various-sized ensembles from the full orchestra will perform frequently throughout the season. As in past years, there will be several performances of "The Nutcracker" with the Northern Ballet of Livonia, as well as numerous musicals in the surrounding communities.

The meeting is open to the public without charge.

School hosts Polish Country Fair

Roll out the carpets, you'll have a barrel of fun. The Moms and Dads Club of St. Mary's Preparatory in Orchard Lake will host its eighth annual Polish Country Fair on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The fair will include the "third-largest garage sale in the world" and feature music by the Monerays, Harmony Kings, Sparks of Fire and Little Joe and the Polka Boys.

Polish folk dancing will swing with the Syrena Dance Ensemble, Tatry Dancers, Poznan Dancers, Rzeszow Dancers and the Opole Dancers. The fair will run from 5-11 p.m. on Friday. The Redford Union Unicycle Club will kick off Saturday events at 2 p.m. Mass will be at 5 p.m. The fair will end that day at 11 p.m.

Mass in the Shrine Chapel of Orchard Lake at 11 a.m. will start Sunday's activities, which continue through 9 p.m.

Ethnic dinners will be served continuously each day, including goulash, pierogi, meatballs, Polish crepes and Polish pumpkin pie. One prize each of $250, $150 and $100 will be awarded to raffish winners.

Booths, games, outdoor dancing, a Las Vegas room and tours are also on tap.

The school is located at Orchard Lake and Commerce roads. Call 682-1885 for more details.

Bess Bonnier plays Sundays

"Sunday Afternoon" in the Detroit Institute of Arts will continue through summer, featuring Detroit pianist Bess Bonnier.

Each Sunday, from 1-4 p.m., with the exception of May 24 (Memorial Day weekend), Ms. Bonnier will offer romantic Broadway music in the improvisational style for which she is known nationwide. Set in the museum Crystal Gallery, "Sunday Afternoon" offers a wide range of cocktails, champagne, exotic coffees and teas, and French pastries. All menu items are $2.50. There is no admission charge or minimum.

With the completion of the museum's Kresge Sequence construction, entry to "Sunday Afternoon" will be through the new theater foyer on the main level.
