

INSIDE ANGLES

CALLING ALL DIRTY CARS Rev up your engines and head for Farmington High School's student parking lot Saturday, June 6, where the junior class will be washing cars to support their class.

Heavy duty washing begins at 11 a.m. Farmington High is on Shawassee west of Orchard Lake Road. The squeaky clean look costs $1 for cars and $1.50 for trucks.

KUDOS TO ENGINEERING students Toney S. Flack and George J. Padool of Farmington Hills, who received awards from the school of engineering at Lawrence Institute of Technology during an honors ceremony recently at the Engineering Society of Detroit.

Flack, a graduate of Clarenceville High School, was presented with one of two academic excellence awards. Padool, a Catholic Central grad, was named most outstanding student in the construction engineering program.

Both students graduate from LIT next month.

GENEALOGY AND FOLKLORE topics the agenda at today's meeting of the area chapter of the American Historical Society of Germans from Russia.

The meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m. in Room A-205 of Lawrence Tech's administration building, 10 Mile at the Lodge Freeway.

Headquartered in Lincoln, Neb., the group represents persons whose families of German heritage fled persecution in Russia to settle in the United States and Canada during the past 100 years.

If you want to learn more about the society, call Lawrence Bitter at 851-4134.

HOME SECURITY TIPS are at just in time for vacation season from Detroitbank Corp.

The bank is offering a free pamphlet with tips on window and door security, home exterior pointers (like securing basement door with lock, having adequate outside lighting, and trimming bushes to prevent hiding), and warding off pick-pockets and purse snatchers.

For your copy, send a stamped, self-addressed business-size envelope to Public Relations, Detroitbank Corp., 211 W. Fort, Detroit 48226.

THREE CHEERS for Kathryn H. Purcell of Farmington Hills, who earned a place as one of six new Michigan State University cheerleaders chosen for the 1981-82 sports season.

Ms. Purcell survived three cuts and will join the 18-member squad, which cheers at MSU football and basketball games.

A 1980 graduate of Harrison High School, she is the daughter of Jerry E. Purcell of Pipers Lane.

The new cheerleader, who is a freshman accounting major, has a four-year academic scholarship worth $300 a term.

TALKING BOOK patrons to age 13 may join the summer reading club sponsored by the Oakland County Subregional Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, in the Farmington Hills library.

Participants will listen to/read stories of their choice to earn prizes and a reading certificate, and will be invited to an end-of-summer party. For full details, call 553-0300.

MEET LOCAL ARTISTS being honored this year by the Farmington Area Arts Commission at a reception and tribute at 4 p.m. Sunday, June 7, at the Farmington Community Center, 24705 Farmington Road.

The reception will honor Charlene Slaby, winner of the 1981 artist in residence award, R. Paul Barber and Hope Nahstoll, winners of the service to the arts award, and the Farmington Players, winners of the 1981 arts organization award.

EFFECTIVE WORK RELATIONSHIPS between volunteers and volunteer agencies is the topic of a two-day workshop sponsored by Madonna College in Livonia June 5-6.

Managing Volunteers will meet Friday at 6 p.m. and Saturday at 8 a.m. in room 117 of the academic building. The cost is $50 for one hour of college credit or $30 for 1.2 units of continuing education credit.
