

DIANE MATTHEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Matthews of Livonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Diane Denise, to Stanley E. Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Henderson of Minier, Ill. The bride-elect is a 1966 graduate of Bentley High School and a senior at Michigan State University. Her fiancé graduated from Michigan State in 1969 and is a graduate student at Cornell University. An April 4 wedding is planned.

PEGGY CAREY

Mr. and Mrs. James Carey of Livonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Peggy Lee, to Richard Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Owen of Livonia. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Bentley High School and Central Michigan University and is teaching fifth grade in Owosso, Mich. Her fiancé also graduated from Bentley and is a senior at Michigan State University, majoring in television and radio. The couple plans to marry March 20 and will live in Laingsburg, Mich.

DIANE BRODOWSKI

Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Brodowski of Hathaway Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Diane Christine, to Gary E. Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerr of Westland. The bride-to-be is a 1969 graduate of Franklin High School and employed by Seven-Up Corp. in Detroit. Her fiancé graduated from John Glenn High School in 1966 and is a Burroughs Corp. employee. They will be married in April.

Blairs Tie Wed By Candlelight

In a candlelight ceremony Feb. 14 in Peace Lutheran Church, Livonia, Judy Ann Ramse and John Norman Blair were united in marriage.

The Rev. Robert Mueller officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Ramse of Richland Avenue, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. George Blair of Florida Avenue, Livonia, are parents of the bridegroom.

ESCORTED DOWN the aisle by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and lace with crystal and pearl bead trim. Her veil was elbow-length and her flowers white roses with three tiny pink ribbons in the center.

Two attendants wore full-length gowns with red velvet skirts and pink organza bodices. Belinda Ramse, maid of honor for her sister, carried a heart-shaped bouquet of red roses edged with white carnations.

THE HEART-SHAPED bouquets of the bridesmaids, Donna Clark, Mrs. Pat Carrick and Marion Roberts, were red roses and pink carnations.

Richard Blair, the bridegroom's oldest brother, was best man, and the ushers were John Carrick, Jim McDonald

Jean Augey Wins Award

A dress and coat design by Jean Augey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Augey, Farmington, a Stephens College Senior, is featured in the "Teen Award-Winning Looks to Sew Yourself" section of the March issue of Glamour Magazine.

Miss Augey designed a long coat over a short skirt and side-buttoned vest done in red, white and blue. The outfit is accented with a red scarf, belt and stockings.

Her picture and another design, a navy coat over a vested red and white plaid dress, appear in the Celanese Fortrel advertisement in the same issue.

Augey entered and won last fall. Miss Augey, a fashion major at Stephens, submitted original designs for coats, rainwear, suits, cocktail, formal and winter and summer sportswear for the contest.

Jean and the other winners received a special assignment to design a garment, which appears in a special section of the Butterick "Spring and Summer Catalogue."

As a contest winner, she received a $50 certificate plus the showing of her designs in Glamour Magazine and Women's Wear Daily, and the Butterick Pattern Book.

Sorority Will Meet March 10

Fraternity education will be the topic at the March meeting of the Western Wayne County Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m., Tuesday, March 10, in the home of Mrs. Charles F. Lang, 47555 Powell, Plymouth. Women planning to attend should call the cohostesses Mrs. Fred Sigmon, 453-4558, or Mrs. John Hopkins, 453-5558.

The sorority's new officers will attend. They are Mrs. Robert Chartrand of Westland, president; Mrs. Ivan Sekulich of Dearborn Heights, vice president; Mrs. Terry Fields of Detroit, treasurer; Mrs. Don Grandine of Livonia, recording secretary; Mrs. Owen Newell of Livonia, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Shields of Dearborn, Parliamentary delegate; and Mrs. John Hopkins of Plymouth, philanthropy chairman.

Both are graduates of Franklin High School. The new Mrs. Blair is a licensed practical nurse employed at Oakland Medical Center and her husband is employed by DayTrin Electric as a draftsman.

Miss Cutler Is Married

In a double-ring ceremony at First United Presbyterian Church, Plymouth, Christine Cutler Cutler of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rusting Cutler of Plymouth, became the bride of Roy W. Schwartz, son of Mrs. Ellsworth Ratkic of Clinton and the late Louis S. Schwartz.

The Feb. 27 ceremony was performed by Dr. Henry Walsh. The bride's father gave her in marriage. Date L. Cunningham and Mrs. Sandra L. Cunningham were attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz will make their home in Ann Arbor. The bride is a graduate of Plymouth High School and attended Eastern Michigan University. She is now employed as credit counselor by St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

The bridegroom is employed by the University of Michigan and attends Washtenaw Community College. After graduating from Clinton High School, he spent four years in the Air Force.

Mrs. Nevill Has 'Y' Post

Mrs. W. R. Nevill of Garden City has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Western Wayne County branch of the Young Women's Christian Association.

She will serve as chairman of the branch's Central Planning Council and a member-at-large of the board. Named president of the branch was Mrs. Callie Hester of Inkster, while Mrs. Norman Schellhaase and Mrs. Thelma Bell were named vice presidents.

Surprise Party Honors Bells

A surprise party in a local restaurant marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Bell, 2147 Grove, Livonia, on Jan. 10.

Some 150 guests coming from as far as Miami, Fla., and Toronto were on hand to surprise the couple.

Hosting the gala were the Bells' four children, Carl Bell, Vada Bell, Mrs. Doris Meadows and Mrs. Bernice Gill.

The Bells, natives of Canada, were married in 1920 and came to this country in 1923. They lived in Detroit while Mr. Bell worked for Chevrolet Gear and Axle until 1967, moving to Livonia after his retirement.

Fabric Fashion For '70s Coming To Westland

Spring and summer fabrics from the famed Bouscasse of France fabric house will get the spotlight in the "Fashion Environment '70" style show to be presented by Hudson's in the Westland Center Saturday, March 7.

Separate presentations at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. in the center's west court will show the dramatic new fabrics in Vogue Paris Original, International Couturier and Americana designs.

Four Parisian mannequins, flown to the U.S. expressly for the show, will model the designs.

Commentary will be by Elizabeth Gaynor of Bouscasse and Erika Ketchum, Hudson fashion fabric coordinator.
