

Campfire Girls Plan Celebrations

FARMINGTON Camp Fire Girls have fun. They've been having fun for 60 years. The Camp Fire Girl organization celebrates its 60th birthday in March.

Farmington Camp Fire Girls are no different than their cohorts across the country. At every age level, first grade through high school, they have fun in city and township with the Camp Fire Girl program supplementing the work of home and school in guidance toward responsible womanhood.

THE PROGRAM nationwide began in 1910 when Dr. Luther Halsey Glick established it to provide a stage for character building using playtime activities. He recognized that education is not confined to school

Farmington Socially Speaking

By KATHY ZISKA GR. 4-7261

The committee responsible for the "good time was had by all" at the Old Fashioned Supper and Barn Dance in the Orchard Methodist Church comprising of the Active Couples Group was listed last week but we didn't mention some of the guests attending.

Some we know were there are: the Rev. Eric and Mrs. Florence Hammar, Walt and Marge Knickerbocker, Sylvia and Jim Jardine, Jean and Willard Crawford, Dr. Chris and Mrs. Mary Dean, Larry and Norma Beaumont, Georgia and Bob Carruthers, Jean and Bill Parsley, Wendal and Elsie Marvin, Nancy and Russ Haight, Jeanette and George Bayer.

There were many more guests, too numerous to mention, all of whom enjoyed the church membered Young Peoples Folk Singers, with guitar. The group was comprised of Ken Baundry, Sue Brown, Brenda Lee, Laurie Newlin, Sandy Orchard, Eric Hammar, Bruce McDermott, Kathy Syme, Sue Smith, and Jim Smith, guitarist.

AN UNUSUAL stork shower was given for Mrs. Richard Buck. Nanette and Richard Buck, married in Farmington about six years ago, and are now living in New York.

Many friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Graczyk on Peardridge Rd. to honor the event. There was a long distance phone call placed to New York where Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buck reside. It was a surprise and surprised they were! Each guest worded congratulations and best wishes. Photos were taken of the group guests.

There was a lovely buffet lunch where a gold bird cage, used as a container, with pink carnations and gold lemon leaves, graced the table.
