• COUNTRY STARS

A benefit concert by Tammy Wynette and George Jones is being rescheduled for late August or early September at Oakland University. The two country music entertainers were to perform in a benefit for OU's Athletic Scholarship Fund at 7:30 p.m. Saturday on the grounds of the Meadow Brook Music Festival on campus near Rochester.

Because Tammy Wynette had emergency sugery Monday, all her concerts have been postponed until the end of July or later. Tickets already purchased can be used for the rescheduled concert when the date is announced, or refunds may be obtained by returning tickets to the point of purchase. The originally scheduled concert was sold out.
