

club circuit

THE SINGLE-AIRES will have a discussion meeting at 8:30 p.m. tonight in the Dearborn home of Gail Leyva, 4955 Schaff.

The group, made up of singles from 21-59 years of age, is based in Birmingham.

Membership information will be taken by calling Marcia Magid, 855-3455.

THE GATHERING PLACE has scheduled three trips for area senior adults this summer. Reservations are now being taken in The Gathering Place, Mercy Center, 11 Mile Road east of Middlebelt Road.

Tomorrow at 9 a.m. seniors will board a bus for the Senior Summerfest in Waterford Oaks Activities Center.

The event, sponsored by Northwest Senior Citizens Coordinators and Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission, includes a picnic, outdoor games, prizes, square dancing, ballroom dancing, nature hikes and entertainment.

Area seniors will leave on July 14 for Flint's Star Theatre and "The Mizzy Gaynor Show."

A cruise down the St. Clair River to Wallaceburg, Ontario, is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 4.

On Sunday, July 26, Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Senior Adult Program will join with Farmington Community Center to sponsor the Gathering on the Green.

Senior women are asked to come in long dresses, and both men and women are invited to stroll the center's grounds, dance to live music and enjoy the ice cream social. Admission is free. The only cost is for the ice cream.

ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE AND RELATED DISORDERS ASSOCIATION (ADRDA) will host a public meeting at 2 p.m. on Sunday, June 28, in Lafayette Clinic Auditorium, 951 E. Lafayette, Detroit.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Sam Brinkman, a neuropsychologist on the staff of Lafayette Clinic, Wayne State University and Allen Park Veterans Administration Hospital. His talk is called

"Alzheimer's Disease and the Senility Myth."

The association provides support and information for families and friends of patients suffering from Alzheimer's disease and related disorders.

Alzheimer's disease is a progressive, irreversible brain disease for which there is no known cause or cure. Related disorders include Picks, Creutzfeldt-Jakob and other senile dementias.

Inquiries will be taken by calling Nancy Lombardo, 846-2982, or Sarah Glover, 333-2795.

NEW FACES will host its first meeting at 8:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 28, in the Steak and Ale, 27590 Orchard Lake Road.

The group is a social organization for single persons from 25-35 years of age. A variety of activities will be planned. Admission will be nominal, and many events will be offered without charge.

Entertainment and a cash bar will be available. Inquiries will be taken by Pam Gilbert, 661-4967. Admission of $3 will be asked at the door.

SWEET ADELINES, Great Lakes Chapter, will have a guest night at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, June 30, in Ford II High School, 11911 Clinton River Road, Sterling Heights.

Guest night provides information on Sweet Adelins to the visitors. No auditions are required, but the group is offering membership to women who wish to sing barbershop-style with the chorus. The championship chorus will compete next in Phoenix, Ariz.

The only requirements for membership are the ability to sing in tune and hold a part against three others. Inquiries will be taken by calling Fay West, 978-8563.

CHILD BIRTH WITHOUT PAIN EDUCATION ASSOCIATION will host a movie showing the birth of a baby using the Lamaze-Pavlov (psychoprophylactic) method of painless childbirth.

The movie will be shown at 8 p.m. on Monday, July 6, in Berkley High School's Little Theatre, at Catalpa and Coolidge roads, and at 8 p.m. on Thursday, July 9, in Grace Northwest Hospital auditorium, 18700 Meyers, south of Seven Mile Road in Detroit.

Donation of $1 per person will be asked at the door. Children will not be admitted.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 23352 Farmington Road, Farmington 48024, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.

Braid-cutting

West Bloomfield resident Connie Volpe lost a braid this week when MarioMax Salon substituted braid-cutting for the traditional ribbon-cutting ceremony in the opening festivities of the salon in Loehman's Hunters Square. Mario Bitonti (at left) is formerly of Bitonti's in Birmingham. Max Reiger is formerly of the Crimpers in Farmington, a salon which the two owned jointly at one time.
