

Raffle winners claim prizes

Two events sponsored by Adults for Kids, a roller skating party at Bonaventure Roller Skating Center and a swim and gym per College, culminated with the awarding of two bicycles as door prizes. Shown here with their new set of wheels are Theresa Spliz (left) and Sue Ogden. Also present for the ceremonies were John Reed (left) from the Farmington Bike Shop, which donated the bikes, and Brian Sprague from Adults for Kids.

Trevisan named to Mortar Board

Julie A. Trevisan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Trevisan, Farmington Hills, has been initiated into Valparaiso University's chapter of Mortar Board, the national senior honor society.

Members in the Mortar Board are chosen from eligible junior students who have earned a grade point average of 3.4 or above on a 4.0 scale. They are evaluated on achievement in scholarship, leadership, and service. Selection is made by the graduating society members.

The group participates in assisting freshmen at registration, operating a tutoring service, serving at honors receptions, and sponsoring graduate-school forums.

Thomas Kzrzensinski

Hills man named as merger chief

Figgie International Inc. has announced the appointment of Thomas S. Kzrzensinski of Farmington Hills as director of mergers and acquisitions. For the past 12 years, Mr. Kzrzensinski has served with General Motors Corporation, most recently as vice president of finance and treasurer of Motors Trading Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary which conducts international trade and bartering activities.

Starting with GM's Hydra-matic division as a systems analyst, he rose to positions of increasing responsibility at the Ypsilanti and Willow Run operations and Detroit headquarters, including assignments as administrator of North American Pricing and assistant director of Treasury Operations.

In 1975, Kzrzensinski earned his master's degree in business administration, with a specialty in quantitative analysis, from Eastern Michigan University, and was elected to the Beta Gamma Sigma national honor society. He received his bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1969 from Michigan State University.

English taught

An intensive English language seminar for students of English as a second language will be held Aug. 10-14 and Aug. 17-21 at the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College.

Students will complete 42 hours of language study which will stress the reading of collegiate-level texts, essay and paragraph writing, formal and informal speech, effective listening and note-taking. The seminar is geared to applicants who have intermediate language proficiency but who have not scored 550 on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or 80 on the Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency.

Registration begins July 1 and is limited to the first 20 students. For additional information, contact George Keith or Johanna Kobran at the Orchard Ridge campus. 476-9400.
