

'The Monster'

This is an aerial shot of Oakland Hills' famous South Course — nicknamed 'The Monster' by golf great Ben Hogan in the early 1950s — that will challenge some of golf's best senior players. The clubhouse is in the top right hand corner, and the tricky 16th hole is in the center next to the lake. Maple Road is off to the right, and Lahser Road is at the bottom. Parking will be on the North Course off Maple.
