upcoming things to do

- BENNETT SINGS
Meadow Brook Music Festival's third week presents pop singer Tony Bennett on the variety series at 8:30 p.m. Friday in the Baldwin Pavilion on the Oakland University campus near Rochester. The Sunday Pops series offers the Kingston Trio, singing '50s favorites "Tom Dooley," "Mama," and other hits. Also appearing on stage at the 7:30 p.m. Sunday concert will be winners of the International Barber Shop Quartet Competition, being held this weekend at Cobo Hall in Detroit.
- Added attraction of the Sunday concert will be the Festival Fair in the Oakland tent on the festival grounds. Gates open at 4 p.m. for the event sponsored by the Meadow Brook Women's Committee. There will be balloons for the children, antiques, objets d'art, Meadow Brook blankets, umbrellas and picnic baskets, home-baked goods, handcrafted items and the new "Festival of Piesies" cookbook. For more information about Meadow Brook, call the box office at 377-2010.
- ART IN AMERICA
After a month's absence from the stage, Art in America will appear Friday-Saturday at the Bowers in Hamtramck. Chris Ruetenik and Jim Kuhla, the group's prolific songwriters, took advantage of the month's respite to put together six original songs which will be featured at this weekend's performances. Art in America is the only rock group in Detroit, if not the world, featuring a harpist (Shishonne Ruetenik), playing string pedal harp, the kind used by symphonies. For more information, call the Bowers at 871-1503.
- CARILLON RECITAL
Dr. Frederick L. Marriott, organist-carillonneur, will present two 20-minute recitals at 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Sunday at Kirk in the Hills, W. Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills.
- SUNDAY CONCERT
Ortega Barnes and Jimmy Dowell will perform 2-4 p.m. Sunday at the free concert series at Somerset Mall in Troy. The concert will be taped by Cox Cable TV for future viewing in St. Clair Shores, Grosse Pointe Shores and Fraser.
- MERRIE MELODIE
"The Day of the Jackal" starring Edward Fox, Alan Badel and Tony Britton continues through Sunday at the Merrie Melodie Theatre in Meadowbrook Village Mall, Avon Township. The Technicolor film directed by Fred Zinnemann is adapted from the best-selling book by Frederick Forsyth. For show times, call the theater at 375-0911.
- BAND SCENE
Automatix continues through Saturday at the Wagon Wheel Saloon, 2950 Rochester Road, Troy. The Basics plays Tuesday through July 18.
- SUMMER AFTERNOON
"Mummers" (mime-music-dance) will perform at noon Sunday at "Live by Arts and Lemonade" in the Plaza of the Southfield Civic Center. The two mimes, Michael Kidney and Jeff Nahan, have performed in theaters and schools throughout Michigan. The duo will be joined by a flute accompanist as they present a variety of mime sketches. Families are being invited to bring a picnic lunch to accompany complimentary lemonade and the show.
- MOVIE TIME
"One Day at Teton Marsh" and "Ti-Jean Goes Lumbering" are the selections for this week's "Film Round-Up" at 2 and 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Bloomfield Township Public Library. "Cowboy" and "City of Gold" are the two movies to be shown for this month's Adult Reading Room Film at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the library. "Cowboy" tells of the changing world of the cowboy of the '70s. "City of Gold" is the story of the life and death of the last major gold rush. There is no charge and no reservation is necessary for either of the film programs. For more information, call the library at 642-5800.
- BARBER SHOP
The 43rd annual Convention and Contest of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America will be held in Detroit. Nine thousand barber shoppers from all over the United States, Canada, Great Britain and Sweden are gathered to select the 1981 International Quartet and Chorus Champions. All 9,000 vocalists will present four-part harmony in a Mass Sing at 10 a.m. Friday at Hart Plaza.
- WORLD PREMIERE
Ric Knox of Birmingham is featured in the world-premiere production of three one-act plays by Tom Robinson at 8 p.m. Friday-Saturday at Stagecrafters, 176 Bowers, Clawson. Knox has appeared in productions by several metropolitan Detroit theater groups. The one acts are "The Hole," "Across" and "The Tide." This is Stagecrafters' first summer theater, by its repository company. Actor Knox once lived next door to playwright Robinson, whose father and mother are individually directing the one-acts. For ticket information, call the box office at 585-6437.
- ETHNIC FESTIVAL
The 1981 Czechoslovak-American Festival will be held Friday-Sunday at the air-conditioned Yack Arena, Eureka at Third Street in Wyandotte. Music and dancing, authentic folk costumes from many regions, folk dances and Sokol Gymnasts will be featured, along with ethnic meals, snacks, pastries and Pilsner Urquell beer, which has been brewed continuously since 1292 in Pilsen, Bohemia. Hours are 6 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday; 4 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday and 2-10 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $2.50 for adults; $2 for senior citizens. Children 12 and under are free when accompanied by adults.
- CONCERTS
Stanley Clarke-George Duke is the concert attraction at 8 p.m. Friday at the Masonic Auditorium, Detroit. Alice Cooper, with special guest Joe Perry Project, performs at 8 p.m. Friday-Saturday in the Joe Louis Arena, Detroit. Tickets are available at all CTC outlets. Prices are $10, $15, $11.50 for Clarke-Duke, $9, $10 and $11 for Cooper.
- FIFE AND DRUM
Fife and drum and military units combine to recreate the colonial period Saturday and Sunday at Greenfield Village, Dearborn. Special drills, cannon and musket demonstrations and battle re-enactments will be presented. There is no charge for the muster beyond village admission of $3 for adults, $4 for children 6-12, $6.50 for senior citizens. For 24-hour information about Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum, call 271-1976.

Open house announced; auditions also planned

WILL-O-WAY Apprentice Theatre will hold an open house from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday at the theater, 715 W. Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Township.

Registrations will be taken at that time for summer classes scheduled to begin the following week. Classes are open to anyone interested in the theater, with courses geared to children and adults. Students also will be able to gain performing experience.

WILL-O-WAY Apprentice Theatre is licensed by the Michigan Department of Education as a trade school. Courses can be applied to a junior, senior or master certificate.

Interested persons may call 644-4418 for additional information or visit the theater during the open house.

WILL-O-WAY has announced auditions for the musical "Golden Boy" to be held from 2-5 p.m. on Sunday and July 18. Readings will take place in the theater, on Long Lake Road between Telegraph and Lahser roads. Actors should bring their resumes.

Twenty-three parts, including eight principals, will be cast. The lead is Joe Wellington, a black man who must be an accomplished actor who can sing and dance. Dramatic parts are available, as well as roles for singers and dancers.

Auditions for a large singing and dancing chorus, both black and white, also will be held.

"Golden Boy" is based on a book by Clifford Odets and William Gibson. Music is by Charles Strouse. Lee Adams wrote the lyrics.

The musical will open on Aug. 15 and run for seven performances on Saturday nights through Sept. 5.

Fair Lane hall hikes entry fee

Tour prices for Fair Lane mansion, former home of the late Henry Ford, have been increased, according to Doris Guidry, Fair Lane facilities coordinator.

Prices will be $2.50 for adults, and $1.50 for senior citizens, students and children under 12.

Fair Lane is on the campus of the University of Michigan-Dearborn, on Evergreen south of Ford Road. It is open for public tours 1-4:30 p.m. Sundays. For information, call 593-5590.

Me too!

My brother is a carrier for the Observer & Eccentric newspapers and when I get to be 11 years old, I'm going to be one too!

I'll have my own business and keep my own records and earn money and win prizes.

It sure is neat being an Observer & Eccentric carrier and I can't wait until I'm old enough.

THRILL TO THE TRILL AND THE RAT-A-TAT-TAT

COLONIAL MILITARY FIFE & DRUM MUSTER

This weekend only, July 11-12

The crack of muskets, the boom of drums, and the trill of fifes resound again at Greenfield Village. Come see mock battles, military drills, artillery demonstrations, parades and stirring musical performances. Visit campsites that recreate the life of a revolutionary foot soldier.

Highlighting this two day muster—largest of its kind in the Midwest—will be the nationally famous Old Guard Fife & Drum Corps from Washington, D.C.

A family adventure, included in the regular admission price to Greenfield Village. Don't miss it. For 24 hour information, call the Village Party Line (313) 271-1976.
