

in the pocket/W.W. Edgar Women bowlers boost averages

The final averages are in for the 1980-81 season, and they prove once more why the women bowlers in the Detroit area are rated among the best in the country and why the women's all-star leagues are considered equal or better than any in the land.

The figures reveal that the Bowlerettes League on Monday nights boasts 48 members with averages of 180 or above. This is far more than most women's leagues. And, three of those 48 are above the 200 mark.

Cora Felbig tops the list with a 205 average. Two others, Gerry Ritter and Penny Behn, are above the 200 mark.

It is much the same on the men's side, where the two all-star leagues — the Tuesday and Thursday Classics — boast more than the average 200 shooters.

As a matter of fact, the men boast more than 50 in the 200-and-above bracket. That's a bit more than half of the membership and unmatched in any other part of the state.

Top man among them is Dick Beattie, the southpaw who has won just about everything there is to win in the Detroit area. His average is

Legion powers plan showdown

Bloomfield Hills and Troy-Clawson are on a collision course in the 18th District American Legion baseball wars.

The two teams, which share the leadership of the 14-team circuit with 12-2 records, will clash in a double-header Sunday at Bloomfield Hills Andover High School. The first game has a 2 p.m. start.

Bloomfield Hills, managed by Norm Kaplan, swept a twin bill from Auburn Heights 5-0 and 3-2, in 18th District action last Sunday.

In the opener, winning pitcher Chip Vaughan allowed just one hit — a lead-off double by Don Sharrick. Vaughan, who played for Pontiac Catholic last spring, struck out eight and walked four in recording his third victory without a loss in Legion play.

Paul Sabol produced a double and a home run in three trips to the plate for Bloomfield Hills, which had seven hits. Teammate Brad Remer went two for four and drove in a run.

Bloomfield Hills won the nightcap in thrilling fashion on a suicide squeeze with no outs in the seventh inning.

Tony Bruce led off the inning with a single and took second on the catcher's bad pickoff attempt. Eric Girdler drew an intentional walk, and Remer beat out a bunt to load the bases.

Bill Rankin bunted the second pitch, and Bruce streaked home with the winning run.

Sabol pitched 6½ innings in relief of starter Mike Ron, who faced the first six batters. Sabol, who owns a 4-0 record, gave up three hits, fanned four and passed four.

Bloomfield Hills had 10 hits.

In another recent outing, Berkley's C.J. Besheke singled in the seventh inning to knock in the run, which downed Bloomfield Hills, 2-2. Besheke's hit capped a four-run Berkley rally in the seventh.

TROY-CLAWSON 6, 11

The team, which lost its first two games this summer, ran its winning streak to 12 with a double header sweep of Southfield, 6-2 and 11-1, in 18th District play last Sunday.

Dave Smith, an outstanding pitcher during his high school days at Troy Athens, was the winner in the opener. Smith, a right-hander with a 4-0 Legion record, allowed nine hits, struck out four and walked three.

Tom Lindsay's two-run homer, a mighty clout which landed in the Southfield Civic Center swimming pool 425 feet from home plate, highlighted T-C's 12-hit attack.

Rich Stewart had a double and two singles for the winners, and teammate Ted Bushofsky had two singles. John Slaughter, Southfield's designated hitter, had three base hits.
