

Bloomfield Legion sweeps twin bill

 Troy-Clawson travels to Farmington for an 18th District game on Friday. Game time is 6 p.m. at Our Lady of Sorrows field. Lake Orion has a double header with T-C on Sunday. The first game begins at noon at Troy's Bunton Park.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS 13, 6
NOVI 4, 4
 Mike Rom pitched a seven-hitter and Paul Sabol clouted a three-run homer to lead Bloomfield Hills past Novi, 13-

4, in the first game of an American Legion 18th District double header sweep of Novi Sunday.
 Rom (3-0) went the distance and scattered seven singles. He struck out five and walked four. "It wasn't a classic, but he was sharp when he needed to be," said Bloomfield manager Norm Kaplan.
 Sabol led Bloomfield's 15-hit attack with a three-run homer in the fourth inning. Eric Girder went three for five, and B.J. Cameron had a single and a triple in three trips to the plate.
 Brian Hefele broke open the nightcap with a grand-slam homer in the fourth inning. "It was probably the longest ball hit by us all year," Kaplan said. "It's 450 feet to the deepest part of the field, and the ball landed right at the base of the fence."

 Girder knocked in a run and had two hits, and Cameron sent a runner home with a long triple.
 Winning pitcher Joe Sheeran started and went 4 1/3 innings, striking out three and walking seven. Sabol relieved, recording Bloomfield's first save of the season, working 2 2/3 innings, allowing two hits and fanning six.

Bloomfield hosts Waterford at 6 p.m. Friday at Andover High. On Sunday, Bloomfield, now 16-5, meets Ferndale in a twin bill at Ferndale's Harding Park. The first game has a 2 p.m. start.
FARMINGTON 5, 6
MILFORD 3, 8
 Farmington, with Rich Nutter tossing a seven hitter to record his third-straight pitching victory, downed Milford, 5-3, in the first game of an 18th District double header Sunday.

 Milford won the second game, 8-6. The split left Farmington with an 8-14 record.
 Nutter pitched his first complete game, striking out nine and walking four. Farmington pounded out nine hits and scored all five runs in the fourth inning. Nutter beat out a bunt to load the bases in the fourth, and then Derrick Kerr walked to force in a run.
 Back-to-back singles by Jeff LaBelle and Jeff O'Malley produced Farmington's other runs.

 In the second game, winning pitcher Bill Wolfe went the distance, giving up nine hits, striking out two and walking three. Brian Olmsted's single drove in two runs in the top of the sixth to give Milford a 6-5 lead.
 Losing pitcher Tom Raymond worked 2 1/3 innings in relief of starter Mike Turnquist. Kerr belted an RBI double, and Joey Hamilton had three singles in four trips for Farmington.

Only 1 weekend of polo action left

Major league baseball standings may be at a standstill, but in the meantime, the Mid-America VIII-Goal Polo League race is thickening.
 In Sunday's action at the Detroit Polo Club Grounds in Milford, the Detroit Blues, captained by Merle Jenkins of Novi, earned a share of first place with a 10-3 triumph over Toronto/Vlahovic, 1-4.
 The Blues and the Kentree Polo Club of Grand Rapids are deadlocked with 4-1 records and eight points.
 In another well-fought contest, Paragon Farms, 2-2, captained by Denny
