squad and twirled baton for the marching band. The daughter of Dennis and Dianne Buckley, she will attend the University of Michigan to major in computer science. She has studied dance and flute. She performed a jazz dance to "New York, New York" in the talent contest. Her sponsor was Busher School of Dance. Ms. Ciampa, 17, will be a senior at North Farmington High School where she is captain of the flag corps and a member of the drill team and marching band. The daughter of Nunday and Maureen Ciampa, she hopes to study business administration in college. She has studied dance, jazz and flute and performed a tap dance to "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" for her talent selection. She was sponsored by The Office Environment.

MS. PORFINSKI, 18, is a June graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society and president of the glee club. She plans to attend Central Michigan University to major in business administration. Her parents are Thomas and Antoinette Porfinski. She has studied voice and dance. She performed a song and dance routine to "If They Could See Me Now" as her talent offering. Her sponsor was Financial Designs. Ms. Furman, 18, is a 1980 graduate of Farmington High School where she was a majorette in the marching band.

She is studying cosmetology at Virginia Farrell Beauty School. Sponsored by Burger King, she is a member of the Farmington Players theater group and has studied flute, piccolo, tap dance and ballet. The daughter of David and Patricia Furman, she did a tap dance to "Happy Organ" to display her talent. MS. GARMS, 17, is a senior at Our Lady of Mercy High School where she is active in student government and captained the forensic team. Daughter of Michael and Sharon Garms, she hopes to attend Michigan State University in business administration. She has studied violin and has participated in forensics for three years. She gave a humorous reading, "Why Is There Air," in the talent competition. Ms. Garms was sponsored by Farmington Shoe Repair. Ms. Hosking, 18, is a sophomore at Oakland Community College headed toward a law career. Daughter of John and Celia Hosking, she is a 1980 graduate of North Farmington High School. She was sponsored by Tri-County Enterprises. She has studied violin and voice, and performs professionally with the musical group, "Susan and Her Singing Strings." She rendered a violin solo of two classical pieces in the talent segment of the pageant.

MS. KURZEJA, 19, is a sophomore in nursing at the University of Michigan. She plans to attend graduate school to pursue a career in the health field.
