

Crowds flock to founder's day festivities

The corner of Farmington and Grand River was where the crowds gathered for the five-day founders' day festival.

Staff photos by Randy Borst

Bonnie Stadler, 7, (right) and Ronald Wrubel, 7, of Sheryl's School of Dance wait for the curtain to go up on their dance "Heebe Geebe Mica."

Inspector Richard Niemisto of the Farmington Hills Police Department uses his watch as a mirror to shoot at a target of clay pigeons.

The arts and crafts section of the festival near the Masonic Temple attracted many browsers and buyers.

Getting into her wig for a performance of Raggedy Ann was easier than getting out of it for Ketal Edelbrock, 11, of Redford Township. Her mother, Marjorie, offers some help.

Band together, guys

That Guy recruits the banded collar shirt. Now shaping up in the coolest summer and fall looks to maneuver their way into your wardrobe. With looser lines for your more active times. A thinner banded collar. Minimal details. High flying colors or subtle stripes. Casual, yet polished in every way. Join the movement and lead the way with confidence. Show: BON HOMME silky, polyester striped shirt in shades of tan or blue. $24. S-M-L. From That Guy, at Northland, Eastland, Fairlane, Genesee Valley.

hudson's

