

Area netter wins Mayor's Cup

By Brad Emmons
staff writer

Ed Nagel shunted his student role Sunday and became the teacher as he captured the $1,500 Mayor's Cup at the Grand Slam Tennis Club of the Livonia Family Y.

The steadily improving 16-year-old from West Bloomfield won the men's invitational singles crown with a 6-3, 7-6 triumph over Ian Harris, 28, of Southfield.

"Calling it 'the best win of my life,' Nagel earned his first victory over Harris in three tries.

"I knew I'd have to play well to beat him," said Nagel, who is competing this week in the Western Open Boys 18 tourney in Columbus, Ohio. "I've practiced with Ian and he's a great guy. He's always helped me.

"The difference this time is that my serve has improved a lot. He did not break me once. I was more aggressive from the ground, and this time I went after him with my passing shots."

Harris, who won the tournament last year and competed in doubles last month with Bloomfield Hills' Craig Wittus at Wimbledon, is ranked No. 220 in the world by the ATP (Association of Tennis Professionals) computer. He was awarded $300 for his runner-up finish. Nagel, because he is an amateur, had to turn down the $600 first-place money.

"Ian's one of the best serve-and-volleyers around," said Nagel. "He hits offensively. The ball is always deep."

Nagel, however, was more consistent and ran his opponent from side to side with penetrating ground strokes.

HARRIS, the No. 1 seed, reached the final with a 6-3, 6-1 triumph over Dan Weber, who plays for the Trinity (Texas) University varsity.

Meanwhile, Nagel downed Rochester's Jolley, 6-2, 6-4.

Nagel, who will be a junior this fall at West Bloomfield High, won the Michigan Open three weeks ago in Midland, finished second in the Eastern Bowl (Boys 16) National Tournament in New Jersey, and was a semifinalist in January in the International Orange Bowl Tournament (Boys 16) in Miami, Fla.
