8D(ONS,F,Ro-8C)

marketplace

GIFFELS ASSOCIATES Inc. of Southfield, an architectural, engineering and planning firm, recently acquired Hoyem-Basso Associates Inc. of Bloomfield Hills as a wholly owned subsidary. Giffels chairman and president, Eriest McCamman, said the company is investigating additional acquisitions and mergers in other areas of the country. Regulations continue for the acquisition of a firm in southeastern United States. Plans near completion for the opening of an office in Houston. Hoyem-Basso is a design firm which will continue to operate under its present name, management and location. Giffels has 630 employees while Hoyem-Basso employs 85. Giffels billings has tyear were $33.5 million compared to Hoyem-Basso's $3.3 million.

JOHN D. HOBEN & Co. of Troy acquired Cranbrook Associates Inc., a real estate firm located in Birmingham. Cranbrook has a sales force of more than 160 operating out of six Oakhadine. County offices. Charles Balogh and Charles Fatzer, previous owners, will remain active in sales and consulting with the new firm. Harry Smith and John Hoben Sr. join the management tender.

SCHWEITZER Industrial Corp., a firm specializing in paint finishing systems serving auto, truck, appliance and farm machinery markets, has changed its name to Haden Schweitzer Corp. Arthur Geiger of Bloemfield Township, president of the firm, said the move was initiated by Haden Limited to improve customer awareness of the parent company's worldwide operating capabilities.

A WORLDWIDE automotive business exposition, geared to meet the needs of vehicle manufacturers and suppliers, will be hosted by automotive News sent stummer in Detroit. Automotive News World Expo will run Aug. 24-27, 1982 abt-Colo Itali in conjunction with the seventh annual Automotive News World Congress Aug. 22-25, 1982 at the Detroit of the Congress Aug. 22-25, 1982 at the Detroit of the Congress Aug. 23-25,

NATIONAL BANK of Detroit offers two new products aimed at high income, high balance customers. One is a MasterCard preferred card and the other a new checking account known as a debit card. The bank is the listst nationwide to offer the preferred MasterCard and the first in Detroit to introduce the debit card. MasterCard preferred card is designed for customers with income over 440,000, and features a credit line minimum of $5,000, $100,000 free travel insurance, free traveler checks and the ability to charge higher amounts without authorization calls. Annual fee is $36 but it will be waived for those with more than $5,000 NBD account balances. The debit card allows customers to gain access to their checking accounts when paying for purchases or obtaining cash advances.

FIRST FEDERAL Savings of Detroit is the first savings and loan association in Michigan—and the first outside of California—to top $4 million in assets, according to Chairman James Albier. Assets increased $117 million during the first six months of 1981 to a record $4.002 billion. Deposits on hand, almo 93 increased $145 million to $2.219 billion. Often Me 1 merger with Kalamanoo Savings was a major factor in our reaching the $4 billion asset mark, 'Aliber said, Kalamazoo Savings had assets of $155 million and oine offices in southwestern Michigan.

MICHAEL ZEKO, former producer of WXYZ Television's n magazine series, Channel Seven Special Report, has formed a media cable consulting firm called Michael Zeko & Associates, located in Southfield.

CASE POWER & Equipment has moved from Detroit to a new 23,000-square-foot facility on Telegraph Road in Southfield. The site is three times larger than the former office. Sales and service of Case's complete line of equipment are available.

HOME MORTGAGES in June continued the modest gains of recent months in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Washtenaw counties. Up 10 percent over May's ligures, they were more than 25 higher than in June a year ago. Lenders reported closing 4,198 such mortgages in June compared to 3,791 in May and 3,881 in June 1880, according to Lawyers that in June a work of the second se PROFESSIONAL DENTAL Centers has opened in the Northland Shopping Center under the direction of Dr. Milton Goodman. Seven day a week service, no appointments and emergency dental treatment is available.

FIRST FEDERAL Savings and Loan Association of Oakland located in Pontiac and Landmark Savings and Loan Association have announced a merger agreement. The deal is expected to be completed within 30 days pending state and federal approval. The five Landmark offices will increase to 35 the number of First Federal offices in lower Michigan. The merger will add $50 million to First Federal sassets totaling $455 million and puts the association in line to claim fifth largest $&L in Michigan.

business people

IOSEPH AUWERS of Lathrup Vil-

JOSEPH AUWERS of Lattrup Village, manager of international traffic and customs Department at Ford Motor Co., was appointed executive director of the New Authority for The Detroit/Wayne County Port Authority.

DUDLEY GAYMAN of Rochester was appointed director - used trailer sales for the Fruehauf Division of Fruehauf Corp.

E. ROGER EVERETT has joined Manufacturers Hanover Mortgage Corp.'s Commercial Division as vice president in charge of appraisal and cost located in Farmington Hills.

MARTIN SHEMM of Auburn

Heights was promoted to account su-pervisor at D'Arcy-MacManus & Ma-sius Advertising in Bloomfield Hills.

GLORIA KROHNER has joined orio-Ross Entertainment Agency in NANCY MRAMOR was named head designer of landscaping at Sherwood Forest in Rochester.

HARRIS MACHUS, president of Harris O. Machus Enterprises of Bir-mingham, was elected to the board of the National Institute for the Foodser-vice Industry.

PATRICK RYAN of Rochester was appointed production manager at the Fisher Body Livonia facility.

EDWARD BLATY, vice president and Michigan manager for Lawyers Title Insurance Corp., was elected sen-ior vice president for operations in Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Nebras-ka, Minnesota and parts of Missouri. Blaty lives in West Bloomfield.

CATHY MOONEY of Birmingh

ROBERT BRIMM of Troy was elected senior vice president-treasurer of the board of directors and chief financial officer for Chatham Super Mar-

JERRY LAMB of Troy was pro-moted to vice president and senior op-erations officer at Manufacturers Na-tional Bank of Detroit.

was appointed to officer status as a branch officer for Detroit Bank & Trust, a subsidiary of Detroitbank Corp.

LEON COHAN of Bloomfield Hills was elected chairman of the Michigan Cancer Foundation board of directors. Other directors elected were: ED WARD LEYY of Birmingham; Dr. HAROLD PERRY of Bloomfield Hills; JOHN SMITH Jr. of Bloomfield Hills; Dr. HERBERT BLOOMF of Orchard Lake; and LEONARD SIMONS of Southfield.

Dr. ROBERT BLOOR of Birmingham was elected to the board of trustees of the Michigan Cancer Foundation along with Dr. FREEMAN WILNER of Birmingham; Mrs. EDWARD COLE, Mrs. AARON GERSHENSON, Mrs. WILLIAM GERSHENSON, LESTER MORRIS and FRED RICHARDSON all of Bloomfield Hills, ARNOLD FEUERMAN and Dr. SIDNEY KOBERNICK of West Bloomfield; and Dr. ROBERT TAL-LEY of Southfield. Mrs. JOSEPH VIE-SON of Bloomfield Hills, volunteer ac-tivities chairwoman for the foundation, will serve a second year as ex-officio member of the board of trustees. was appointed sales representative in Detroit area for Wyeth Laboratories, a division of American Home Products Corp. PATRICK ZURLINDEN of Troy was named assistant treasurer for Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

DONALD ABLESON of West Bloom-field was appointed general superin-tendent-manufacturing engineering for Pontiac Motor Division.

VINCENT MUNIGA, a senior vice president at Ziebart International Corp. in Troy, was named general man-ager of the Ziebart Products Group.

JOAN MAC KENZIE of West Bloom JOAN MAC KENZIE of West Bloom-field was elected president of the auxi-liary to the Michigan Osteopathic Asso-ciation (AMOA). Mac Kenzie is a mem-ber of the Oakland County Osteopathic Auxiliary and has been a director of the AMOA for four years.

DAVID ROSEN was appointed representative with Otterbein Associates of Home Life Insurance Co. of New York in Southfield.

York in Southfield.

Master Data Center Inc. In Southfield elected two members to the company's board of directors: DONAID BUCHANAN of Beverly Hills, vice president and senior account officer of Manufacturers National Bank.
RONALD WEINEL OF Birmingham. corporate assistant controller-laxes of the Bendix Corp. Both Buchanan and Weinel have been serving as financial consultants to the board.

ROBERT WILSON was named executive art director of Simons Michelson Zieve Inc. Advertising in Troy. He was formerly vice president and creative K.R. ZEHNDER, JAMES MORAN RICHARD MOORE and B.J. HOOF were appointed vice presidents of Kuhlman Corp. in Troy.

JENNIFER BROWN was appointed director of speech and hearing services at St. Mary Hosptial for APT Health Care Services in Southfield.

Care Services in Southfield.

LOUIS GAMBINO and FRED. SPEIGHTS were named Cadeo (R) Products managers of the northern and; western regions respectively for Cadillac Plastic and Chemical Co. in Birmingham.

Businesses, wishing to submit items for the Eccentric Business Section should send them to Ron Garbinski. 1225 Bawers. Sirmingham 48012. Names appearing in the Business People section are those who live in the Eccentric circulation area or whose businesses are located in Troy, West Bloomfield, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township, Southfield, Rochester, Ason Township, Farmington, Bermington Hills, Franklin, Orchard Lake and Bingam Farms.

8 ft. x 6 ft. x ¾" STOCKADE FENCE POSTS

Farmington Hills

Baginaw: 517/792-9575

The secunities are offered by offering circular only, available at company office which suprains "secured" and "insured" and are for sale only to bons fide residents of the State of Michigan and are not intended for resale to

