

Chi Omegas Gather Books

Children's books collected for the Pontiac State Hospital may be turned in at a luncheon of the North Suburban Alumnae Association of Chi Omega sorority Thursday, March 12. The luncheon will begin at 12 noon in the home of Mrs. Fred Goldberg, 4544 Valleyview Drive, Orchard Lake.

They Buy Flowers

A study shows that the person most likely to buy flowers is a college-educated female between 40 and 49 years of age with annual income of more than $10,000.

Plans are being made for an April 4 luncheon to include the Detroit Downriver and North Suburban Groups. The sorority will celebrate its 75th anniversary.

Republican Women Honor Sen. Beebe

Political celebrities will gather next week with members of the Republican Women's Clubs from throughout the state to honor Sen. Lorraine Beebe at a luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the Redford Women's Republican Club.

Billed as a "testimonial of women for a woman" the guests will include Mrs. William Milliken and Pat Hitt, assistant secretary for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and director of the Women for Nixon during the last campaign.

The March 17 money-raising event at the Raleigh House, 55300 Telegraph, will begin with a receiving line at 11:30 a.m. Guests may then greet Sen. Beebe, who represents the 13th senatorial district that includes Redford Township, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights and Inkster. The luncheon will follow at noon.

(One woman from each of the 12 Republican Women's Clubs in the metropolitan Detroit area will model fashions by Jean Blackburn, who owns shops in Dearborn and Birmingham.)

SEN. LORRAINE BEEBE

Makeup for the models will be by Fashion 220.

For reservations call Mrs. Jorma Cole (KE-3-0663), Mrs. Betty Hughes (KE-3-5500) or Mrs. Hedy Sheffer (KE-1-2820). Livonia women may call reservations to Mrs. Gilbert Vogel 422-0508.
