

How Eclipse Looked Here

ECLIPSE FROM HERE on Saturday, March 7, as caught by Observer Photographer Harry Mauthe from behind the Observer Newspapers building. His excellent photos were taken with a 1,000-millimeter lens, double neutral-density filters, with 250th-of-a-second exposure on Tri-X film developed normally. He clicked his camera for these shots between 1 and 3:30 p.m.

LIVONIA MALL LOT-H

Are you paying more for shoes these days and enjoying them less?

You can be sure a middle man is happy.

Have you stopped to consider how much of your shoe dollar goes to pay a middle man?

Did you know it costs more to buy your shoes from a small department in a big store?

Because somebody has to pay that middle man. Somebody has to pay for the rent in that big store.

That's you.

Stop to consider (or re-consider) Thom McAn.

At Thom McAn you don't pay the middle man. Because Thom McAn makes most of the shoes you buy.

And as for quality, Thom McAn has a famous name to protect. A shoe can't carry the Thom McAn label unless it passes all the long-life tests at the Melville Testing Laboratories. We're so confident of the work of our testing scientists that every pair of our shoes is guaranteed to make you happy... or your money back. Quick. No questions asked.

Visit a Thom McAn store soon. Take a long look at the shoes. Pick them up and feel them. You'll notice that the leather and workmanship is comparable to that of more expensive shoes.

You're paying less for the same shoes because at Thom McAn you don't pay for a middle man. You're also paying less because Thom McAn is the best-selling brand in all America.

If other stores sold as many shoes as Thom McAn, they could charge less, too!
